LADIES STEP FORWARD

Look-a-Like Looks for School

Twin smiles, twin sizes and twin studies are happily shared, but our nine-year-old fashion miniatures have very individual personalities. And they demand look-a-like but not identical back-to-school ensembles and hairstyles. . . . Knowing their fashion Jean's Bel-Aire gives our twins a headstart on Fall Obviously, the name of the hairstyle game is "Keep It Short and

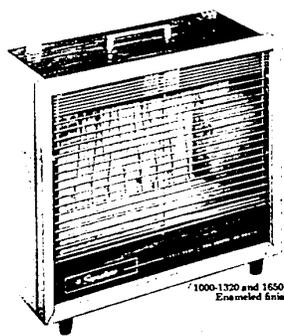

MR. AND MRS. HERBERT C. LONG

Close-to-the-Head." Approved variations allow Becky her favorite tumble curls all over, from bang to nape, while Bobbie elects a sleeker look with sideswept bang and reverse quiche curls. Both coiffures are supported by little girl perms and basic layered hair shaping. A high-scoring fashion match for the custom coils are look-a-like window pane check ensembles complete with visor caps and high-high stockings. Call GR 4-7810.

Long Time Residents Celebrate 40th Anniv.

Saturday evening was the time set for a lovely 40th wedding celebration for Herbert C. and Marie M. Long of Grand River, Farmington. The Longs have lived in Farmington for the past 23 years making their home on Grand River Avenue. Mrs. Long has been active in many civic affairs.

The anniversary celebration on Saturday was a surprise, arranged by the Longs' three children, Herbert C. Long Jr. of Westland and wife Angie; William F. and wife Joan of Taylor; and Carol (Long) Karp of Argonne Rd., Farmington, and her husband, Skip.

The Longs were feted at a lovely dinner party at Lof's Arbor LII in Plymouth. In keeping with the wedding theme, Mrs. Long received a white orchid corsage and Mr. Long a white carnation boutonniere. The band dedicated their first number of the evening to the happy couple, the "Anniversary Waltz."

After dinner two twin white cakes topped with flowers and candles were carried in. The only people missing were the Longs' oldest daughter Millie and her husband Harold Schmidt of Toms River, New Jersey.

The Longs' two children were graduated from Farmington High; William in 1949 and Carl in 1955. Herb had attended Redford High prior to entering the army in 1945.

Mr. Long is a native Detroit having been born on the edge of old Cork Town. Mrs. Long, the former Marie Ralph was born in Mt. Bethel, New Jersey.

The Longs have nine grandchildren; Douglas and Harold of Toms River, New Jersey; Charles and Ann of Westland; Michael, James, and Gordon of Taylor; and Timothy and Tracy Lynn of Farmington.

Scouts Plan Fall Roundup

The fall roundup of the Boy Scouts of America, with its theme "Follow the Rugged Road—Be A Scout!" will make it possible for hundreds of boys in Wayne County and the southern portions of Oakland and Macomb Counties to be Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorers, according to Joseph H. Brinton, Scout Executive of the Detroit Area Council.

"The fall roundup is one of the most important parts of our national Breakthrough for Youth program which has presented the challenge to all Scout leaders to serve a far greater percentage of an escalating boy population with a quality program," Brinton said.

"The left-out boys in every neighborhood should have a chance at Scouting, and our 1,804 Scout units are ready to welcome them to one of the great adventures of youth."

Cub Scouts are 8, 9 and 10-year old boys who meet weekly in a small group with a Den Mother and once a month at a pack meeting with their parents. Boy Scouts must be at least 11 years of age. Explorers are at least 14 and in the ninth grade.

Organizations such as churches and synagogues, schools, service clubs, and other community groups are chartered by the Boy Scouts of America to use the Scout program for the boys in their neighborhoods. Information about Scout units is available from the Council Service Center, 178 West Warren Avenue, Detroit . . . phone 897-1965.
