St. Alexander's Slates Classes

St. Alexander's Family Education Center, in Farmington, has chosen Tuesday, September 20 and Wednesday, September 21, from 7:30 to 9 p.m., as the times for families to register for the coming Catechetical School year. All children going into kindergarten and first grade, and all the new children in the parish should register on either of these days.
All classes will begin on the week of September 26, with the exception of the kindergarten classes which will begin on Tuesday, October 4. Grades three through six will attend Catechism in the mornings, twice weekly, before their public school classes.
Grades seven and eight will attend once a week on Monday after their regular school classes.
Grades nine, ten, and eleven will attend on Monday evenings, from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Grade twelve will attend on the first Monday evening with the other high schoolers for a discussion of special topics for them.
Grades one and two will attend on Saturday mornings, beginning October 1, from 10 to 11:30 a.m.
All the information regarding the bus schedules will be held in a special office which will be found in the Life and Liturgy on Sunday, September 25. The approximate starting time for the morning routes will be 7:15 a.m.

Valparaiso Guild To Host Luncheon
The Detroit West chapter of the Valparaiso University Guild will hold its first meeting of the year on Tuesday, September 20, at the Nau's Sno-White Dining Room, 18944 Glenview Road, Westland. Luncheon will be served at 12 noon followed by the business meeting with Mrs. Frederick Cordes, of Hamlin Ct., presiding. The calendar for the ensuing year will be presented at this meeting.

Deborah Saundry Weds Calvin Henry Buikema

Deborah Jill Saundry and Calvin Henry Buikema were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony on Saturday, September 3. The wedding was performed at the Orchard Methodist Church by the Reverend Frank Cozadd. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth P. Saundry of Farmington, Michigan. The groom's parents are the Rev. and Mrs. Henry Buikema of Livonia. The bride's gown, made and designed by Verna Finly, was fashioned of white silk organza and lace applique. The sleeves were Alcon lace as was the bodice and the cathedral length train. The veil was of floor length silk illusion and was secured by a crown of lace applique flowers centered with pearls.
She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and lily. As her maid of honor the bride chose her sister, Rebecca Saundry and bridesmaids included Lois Buikema, sister of the groom, LeeAnne Cavanaugh, Vicki Benedict and Anna Freeman.
Their gowns were of turquoise linen and they carried purple gladioli in cascades.
As his best man the groom chose Lloyd Wepman. Ushers included Kenneth P. Saundry, Jr., brother of the bride, Michael Dunn, David Gabrielson and Ty Wessel.
The newlyweds greeted their guests in the church parlors after which they left for a honeymoon in Cape Cod. They will make their home in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan.

Wood Creek Farms

ANNE M. PHILLIPS
The big event of the week came last Saturday when Carol Kreider became Mrs. Brent Bremer. The wedding was held in the Franklin Community Church with some 200 attending and Dr. Harold Bremer (no relationship) performing the ceremony. Denise was her sister's maid of honor and her sister's sister, Brenda, was the bridesmaid. Carol's cousin, Lauri Paul, was flower girl, and Brent's cousin, Brentley Bremer, ring bearer. Ken Kreider flew in from Denver Friday to be an usher at his sister's wedding. Flying back to his college and work in Denver on Sunday.
Mary McDonald sang solos for us as we waited for the wedding march to begin. Carol was very lovely as she walked down the aisle on her very proud father's arm. There were tears in many Wood Creekers' eyes as we watched the ceremony, but felt confident Carol had chosen a very fine husband.
Both sides of Millbrook were filled with cars as the throng came for the garden reception and poolside buffet. It was one of the most beautiful days of the year to make it dream-like in the park-like atmosphere of the Kreider home. A flower girl had been erected with tables set for the buffet proved by Jack Cochran, who still seems one of ours even though he now resides here. He served his justly famous roasts of beef.
The Church Leonard strolling musical trio played for us during the evening. They came to tables occupied entirely by

Sorrows Women At Convention

Our Lady of Sorrows Circle 617, Daughters of Isabella, proudly sent their regent, Marie Cronin and treasurer Helen Wrasak to the national convention in Miami Beach, Florida.
Attending were over two thousand women from the United States and Canada.
There were many beautiful and varied floats in the Parade of States. Many changes were made in the bylaws. At the September 12 meeting, members will hear everything first hand from the Supreme Circle.
The third quarter will hold a card party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Byron Oliver on September 24.
Members' husbands and friends are all cordially invited to attend.

Monday Game, Classes Begin At Card Center

Millie Hollis, director of the LaPaloma Bridge Club, has opened a new Monday night game. Starting time is 8 p.m. with the master point game on the fourth Monday of each month. This game, like all the games at the bridge center, is open to the public.
Master point games at the center for the month of September are as follows: Thursday, Sept. 15 at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m.; Saturday, Sept. 17 at 8 p.m.; Sunday, Sept. 18 at 6 p.m.; Friday, Sept. 23 at 8 p.m.; Monday, Sept. 26 at 8 p.m.; and Wednesday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m.
Glass schedules are being set at the center for the fall sessions. There will be day and evening for any type of bridge that fills.
The teachers at the center are Millie Hollis of Pontiac and Cliff Bishop of Detroit. Both teachers are of Michigan's best. All classes at the center are limited to size so the student will receive full benefit of each lesson.
The SMBA (Southern Michigan Bridge Association) is holding their big tournament at the Oakland University in the Oakland Center Building. This big event starts September 29 and ends October 2, with Master Point of Four (over 50 MP) and with the limited team of four (under 50 MP), starting at 7 p.m. Members of A.C.B.L. staff will be the directors. More informative literature is available at the bridge center.

Mrs. Eva E. Ross Weds Wm. McCarthy Of Livonia

Mrs. Eva Elizabeth Ross of Farmington and son-in-law of William McCarthy of Livonia were united in marriage at a nuptial mass conducted by Fr. Albert C. Kolch at St. Alexander's Church on September 10 at 8 a.m.
Their attendants were the daughter and son-in-law of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Wyman of Livonia.
The new Mrs. McCarthy has long been active in social and civic affairs. She is a former Justice of the Peace for Farmington Township and is among the eighteen members of the Oakland County Commission on Economic Opportunity. She is also on the Senior Citizens' Advisory Council, vice-president of the Farmington Historical Society, and treasurer of the Pioneer Golden Age Club.
Mr. McCarthy has retired from Vickers Inc. where he was employed for 27 years. The couple will honeymoon in northern Michigan and visit Mr. McCarthy's daughter, Lorann and her family, the Roy Rosses of Channing.

Cville To Begin Swimming Classes
