Kathryn Austin Off To Stephens

Kathryn Ann Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Baray, 2727 West 9 Mile Rd., Farmington, will leave later this month for Columbia, Missouri, where she will be a freshman at Stephens College. She will be one of more than 1900 students from all across the United States and a dozen or more foreign countries at the four-year residential college for women.

One of the highlights of the 1960-61 academic year at Stephens will be Parents' Weekend, to be held on campus October 28-30. Parents will attend classes with their daughters and take part in special activities planned for them.

KATHERINE KORMESSER as the king in the Farmington Players' production of "Many Moons" consults her wise men. From left they are: Perle Briggs as the royal wizard, Joanne Kaman as the lord high chamberlain and Louise Kirk as the royal mathematician.

Players To Produce 'Many Moons'

In "Many Moons," James Thurber wrote the story of a bumbling king whose lovely little daughter was ill and no one could find out what ailed her, not even the royal wisemen. They thought she was yearning for a different kind of tart which she loved and they sent all over the world for every kind of tart but none of them helped. It was a lowly member of the court who found out what would make the princess well.

The dramatic version of this story will unfold on the stage of the Farmington Players' Barn on September 17, 24 and October 1 at 1 and 3 p.m. Featured as the king is Katherine Kornmesser and as her wisemen, Joanne Kaman is the lord high chamberlain, Perle Briggs is the royal wizard and Louise Kirk is the royal mathematician. Tickets may be reserved by calling Fran Kezerts at 626-2633.

Garden Clubbers Planning Show

Mrs. Edwin Oglesby was hostess to the Board of the Farmington Garden Club in her home on Herndonwood Rd. for the August business meeting. Assisted by Mrs. Gerald Harrison she served coffee and sweet rolls on the lovely terrace.

Business was also transacted on the terrace with plans for the Farmington Garden Club show, "Raise the Song of Harvest Home" taking priority on the agenda.

Mrs. Richard Gaul, president, presided at the meeting and told of two important coming events to mark on the Garden Club calendar. September 21, 22, and 23 will be the "Charles W. Weaver Show," "Form and Fashion" in their reapportioned galleries on Washington Blvd.

September 25 is the last day for acceptance of registration for the annual meeting of District One of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan, Inc. which will be held on October 5 at Red Run Golf Club in Royal Oak.

Lone Pine Garden Club of Bloomfield Hills will be the hostess group. More information will be announced about both of these dates later.

Its A Nice Feeling . . .

To know you appreciate the fact that we take the time to insure your child a properly fitted shoe.

We appreciate the fact that our customers were patient when they had to wait to be waited on during the recent "Back-to-School" rush.

The extremely large number of parents who brought their children to us, to be fitted this year, points up the fact that our policy has been correct.
