

Sewing Classes To Start At 'Y'

Classes in Beginning and Intermediate Sewing Instruction are being offered by the Farmington YMCA beginning Thursday, October 13. There are still a few openings in this class and anyone interested in registering still has time.

Under the excellent instruction of Mrs. Irene MacKinnon, the classes will run for 10 weeks, meeting each Thursday morning from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. She will particularly stress the proper use of a sewing machine, pattern cutting, dress making and shoe covering.

NURSERY CARE is available for youngsters 2 to 5 years old. Mrs. Bernice DeLewski, a highly qualified and experienced nursery teacher, will work with the children in a most meaningful program for pre-schoolers. A fee of $1 per family will be charged each week for this service — a minimum of four families per class. (The nursery fee must be paid before the first class.)

In order to participate a YMCA Adult or Family Membership plus a course fee of $12.50 is required. The membership plus a $5 deposit (plus nursery fee if needed) will hold you a spot in the class. The balance may be paid at the first class. Call or come in to the Farmington YMCA located on Grand River, just east of Drake Road. The telephone number is 474-3232.

Town Club To Hear 'Jills From Hills'

Town Club of Farmington will hold its October meeting at the Farmington Savings and Loan on Thursday, October 6, at 8 p.m.

The "Jills from Bloomfield Hills," an honors ensemble from Bloomfield Hills High School, under the direction of Mr. Clarence Luchtmann, will entertain members and guests.

Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. J. Rainey, Mrs. E. Henderson, Mrs. L. Boetel and Mrs. T. Zukowski.

All Town Club members will be busy during the next month stitching and baking for the annual auction to be held in November.

More Adults Needed To Help Girl Scouts

Farmington residents with a little time to spare and an interest in Girl Scouting are urged to become part of the volunteers in the Scout program.

Mrs. Paul Scapione, speaking for leaders here, said there was a great need for persons who might not be able to be a troop leader or co-leader but still could be of assistance by becoming a Girl Scout adult member.

"There are many other ways to participate in Scouting," Mrs. Scapione said. "Sharing a skill, hobby or interest; going along on an occasional camping trip or excursion; being a part of the organizational framework; doing publicity or display work; being a committee member—we've only scratched the surface. Men are needed too. We are immensely grateful to many men who are paid members and many who are not."

Mrs. Scapione asked interested persons to call her at 626-3028 or Mrs. John Beisiegel at 474-7036.

"Tell us what you would like to do," she added, "and we will be happy to put you in touch with the right people."

Courtesy Can Help Make Farmer and Hunter Friends

With the hunting season near, Michigan hunters should review a few simple hunting rules as carefully as they check their equipment, a Michigan State University game management specialist points out.

Michigan United Conservation Clubs, farm organizations, the Michigan Conservation Department and the MSU Cooperative Extension Service have joined in an effort to maintain good relations between farmers and sportsmen.

Charles Shick, MSU specialist in game management, said that some Michigan conservation clubs are offering rewards for the conviction of hunters causing damage to farm property.

"Thoughtlessness has been responsible for the posting of more private land than any other factor," he said.

Shick has listed a few simple rules for hunters:

• Never hunt on a farm without permission. Ask the farmer first. A proper introduction will help get permission.

• Don't impose upon a farmer by hunting with a large party or when another group is already on the land. Three or four persons to a party is sufficient.

• Guns and dogs should be kept in the car until after hunting permission is granted.

• Locate farm boundaries before you venture into the field. This will prevent trespassing problems.

DAR Chapter Plans Luncheon

Three Flags Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will celebrate their 37th anniversary, Monday, October 10, with a 12:30 luncheon at Carrie Lee's, in Birmingham.

Mrs. Walter Gempeline, 4747 North-Territorial Road, Plymouth, will be the speaker.

Girl Scout News

JUNIOR TROOP 88 went to Camp Arrowhead Aug. 25-28. Mrs. Ann Timmons, the leader, was assisted by Mrs. Shirley Lord and Mrs. Irene Sczeniewski. Four cadets from Troop 804, Carla Campbell, Pat Wilson, Pat Socali and Nancy Hochstetler, were a tremendous help as program aides. Testimony to the wonderful cooking over the open camp fire was the extra pounds put on by some in the short time there.

The girls took part in a supervised swimming and boating program, attended nature camps, participated in discussions and made memory books and book marks in handicraft.

Sunday morning the troop took part in an all-camp sunrise Scouts Out at which time they presented some original haiku poetry they had written. The girls who were going on to the cadet program received their cockades around the camp fire and fond farewells were said to Debbie Dielestein, Laurie McCullough, Mary Miller, Martha Moore and Gay Sczeniewski.

O'Connor Pens Campaign Song

With a tune faintly reminiscent of "Lida Rose", Lee O'Connor has composed a campaign song for the Democratic Party. His wife, Elizabeth, is running on their ticket as Township Clerk.

The words are as follows: Ev'ry guy and gal go And vote for Aldo, Aldo Vagnozzi.

Wontcha be a pal? Go and vote for Aldo, Aldo Vagnozzi.

(1) Farmington needs a change Mister Itall has been a flop Everything will be rosy with Vagnozzi at the top! So

(2) Farmington needs a change Yes a change is overdue Farmington needs a man Who will do his best for you.

(3) Farmington needs a change Yes I've said it once before! Why don't we run the Dielestein, Laurie McCullough, Mary Miller, Martha Moore and Gay Sczeniewski.

Now's The Time To See Fall Color in Michigan

Nature's fall color show, when forests turn from summer green to a brilliant sea of red, orange and brown, has just opened in Michigan and should continue into the first week of November, according to Automobile Club of Michigan.

Approximately 320,000 cars carry over 800,000 persons to see nature's autumnal display at its best between now and October 9 will have to visit the Upper Peninsula," states Fisher. "The color spectacular is expected to reach its peak in the upper third of the Lower Peninsula by mid-October and move into central Michigan a few days later."

"Although color tours can be taken in southern Michigan anytime after the second weekend of October, the most brilliant colors can be seen in the last two weeks of the month," Fisher adds.

Weather conditions determine the length of the color tour season. Rain and wind knock leaves from trees and can limit the season to a few days. When days are warm and dry, color can last for two weeks in an area.

The two most popular touring areas in the state are the Irish Hills in Lenawee County and the Traverse City-Cadillac area.

Often cited as the most scenic is the 32-mile stretch of M-55 between Cadillac and Manistee, Fisher states.

Although color tours can be taken anywhere in Michigan, Fisher suggests that motorists travel country roads where traffic is light and settings more picturesque.

Fisher adds that state forests and recreational areas have roadside markers indicating picnic areas, scenic sites, recreational and educational areas.

Car trips can be taken through the following Upper Peninsula state forests:

Two drives are near Iron Mountain, Sturgeon River State Forest is a 20-mile drive. The Ford River Forest trip is a 35-mile drive.

Tahquamenon River State Forest near Newberry is a 21-mile drive.

Mackinac State Forest drive near Nautawau off US-2 is a 25-mile drive.
