Wednesday night, October 5, was Lakeshire Elementary's first PTA meeting. The subject discussed by the speaker, Dr. Blumberg, was sex education, which is a vital problem facing every parent in this community. The turn out was disheartening.

There couldn't have been more than 80 people at the meeting, which represents one-sixth of the children attending this school. It's one thing if you have no interest in your child's education or in meeting his teachers or in discussing his problems, and it's another thing to be interested but just too lazy to support your PTA.

On Friday night, October 23, the PTA is presenting a father and son night. Movies from the Detroit Red Wings games and the Detroit Lions games for 1965 will be shown at this time.

Now let's get on the PTA bandwagon. If you have a child in school it's essential you support your PTA. A successful PTA is as successful as the parents and teachers behind it. Let's see all of you there Friday night, October 23.

If dad works or goes to school Friday night, arrange for your son to go with another dad. It's a worthwhile organization to support. Fifty cents is the cost per parent to help.

WE HAVE NEW babies in the sub this week. To the list of 56 we add the names of: Gary Carl Delp, born to Virginia and Harold Delp, on October 11, at Mt. Sinai Hospital weighing in at 7 lbs. 9 ozs. He joins four brothers, Russell, age 10, and Keven, age 7.

Lori Dawn Pertinen, born to Gladys and Harry Pertinen on September 20 at St. Mary's. This baby is our biggest one so far. She weighed 8 lbs. 11 ozs. She joins four brothers, Russell, age 10, Dwane, age 8, Jeff, age 7, and Darryl, 5½. Mom had a comical delivery. Amy Sue Fuhs, born to Mary and Bob Fuhs on October 1 at Boisford weighing 8 lbs.

Rene Lynn Goldberg, born to one of our newer couples, Diane and Fred Goldberg on August 1 at Providence Hospital, weighing 7 lbs. 12 ozs.

I WOULD like to introduce to you several new families that are now our neighbors. On Glenbrook, we have Pam and Paul Shwartz. The Shwartzs moved from East Lansing October 7, where Paul attended Michigan State University in the school of accounting. He is an accountant for Ernst and Ernst while Pam is a lady-in-waiting. I'm not telling when but I'll be after the first of the year. This will be their first child. The whole family, including Muffy the poodle, are very happy to be here at Westlake.

Directly across the street, we meet Jackie and Larry Portnoy. Larry is a CPA for local firms and Jackie is a teacher. She teaches the sixth grade at the Cooper school in Livonia. Together with Sam, their new dog, they send a big hello to all of you.

We have another Pam and Paul combination, the last name in this case being Pillsbury. Pam and Paul moved from Jacksonville, Fla., August 15. Paul works with the Chrysler Credit Corporation and they have one daughter, Ann, three years old.

Representing Fink, we have Diane and Fred Goldberg who moved into Westlake during this past summer. Fred is owner of the Plymouth branch of the Harvi's Shop and manager of the one in the Shopping center on Grand River and Moody in Farmington.

ANNIVERSARIES are in the news again this week. Marie and Harry Crawford, of Glenbrook, have just celebrated their twentieth on October 2. The six things that have changed their lives since October 2, 1946, are Paul 17, Jim 15, Linda 12, Donna 10, Tommy 7, and Johnny 5½.

Florence and Norm Bristol, of Ashly, celebrated their sixth anniversary on Saturday, October 15, by attending St. Alexander's dinner dance.

Fran and Gerald Cole celebrated their sixth anniversary, October 1. They spent a quiet evening at home with their children, Linda and Tommy. Barbara Salesberry entertained friends last Monday night at a toy demonstration. Those that attended were Marie Logan, Millie Babb, Marge

A 1,100 mile trip to New Brunswick, Canada, was recently taken by Annette and Harold Sweet, doctors and mother. They were gone for eight days. While in Canada, they visited a family whom they hadn't seen in a long time. The trip included two days traveling, which went very smoothly. Must have been a fabulous trip.

BIRTHDAY congratulations are almost too many to mention.

Shawn Pollock celebrated his fifth birthday at what can almost be called an all day party. Shawn's mother sent cup cakes to school for his kindergarten class to help celebrate the occasion. Upon returning home, there was a family party including his grandmother, Mrs. Mable Pollock, from Dowagiac, Mich. and his aunt, Nancy Redmus and cousin Mark. A very nice day in the life of a five year old.

Eugene Grabinsky, known to many as Junior, celebrated his second birthday with friends Linda and Tommy Cole, Karen Paris, Julianne and Christine Sweet and brother Terry. Terry also celebrated his first birthday with a family party just recently.
