From 3 to 4:30 p.m. that day, the American Field Service Chapters of the Farmington High Schools will hold a community-wide reception honoring their exchange students of the year and giving all interested families an opportunity to meet these young people from abroad.

Sharing the spotlight that day will be Tai-lue-Phan, an 18 year old girl from South Vietnam; Kenneth Ross Smith from Australia, and Bjorn Tjernstrom, of Sweden.

Phan's American family are the James Atchison's, of Momb Street. Ross has upped to six the number of sons of the G. R. Huber's on Lorikay Avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Reber, of Lykastle Lane, will be parents to Bjorn for the coming year.

It is hoped that all area residents will mark this date on their calendars and will be present to meet these outstanding students and their American families.
