

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES BENTON of 21356 Purdue entered their Farmington bred setter in the October 16 show at the Skokie Valley Kennel Club.

Winning Dog Has Farmington Sire

Mr. and Mrs. David Lanlus, of 11094 Hillcrest, Livonia, showed their Farmington-sired Irish Setter at the Western Irish Setter Club Specialty October 15. The Setter had four major wins. He has never been defeated in his class.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Benton, of 21356 Purdue, finished their Farmington-bred dog October 16 at the Skokie Valley Kennel Club. Their dog was sired by the same champion as the dog owned by the Lanluses.

Benton is one of the past presidents of the Irish Setter Club of Michigan and is active in all three phases of showing dogs, field, obedience and bench. He has produced some winning Setters in all three divisions.

Capt. Gary Braun To Instruct

Marine Captain Gary R. Braun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric A. Braun of 36520 Paddfield Rd., has reported to Training Squadron Twenty-One as an instructor.

VT-21 is based at U. S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Kingsville, Tex.

The primary mission of the jet training squadron is to conduct advanced pilot training for future carrier jet aviators. The phases of this intensive training include sweeping jet familiarization, all weather instrument flight, advanced air-to-air and air-to-ground weaponry, tactics, formation and carrier operations.

Upon completion of training, the student receives his coveted "Wings of Gold" and is designated a Naval or Marine Aviator.

Before entering the service in September 1960, Capt. Braun attended Drexel Institute in Philadelphia, Pa.
