

Dunckel Sets Dates For Christmas Show

The Vocal Music Department of O. E. Dunckel Junior High School has been busy with many activities since the beginning of the new school year. The Vocal Department this year is composed of 152 voices in the Girls' Choir, 58 voices in the Boys' Choir, and at recent try-outs, 104 voices were selected for the 1966-1967 Mixed Choir.

Plans for this year's "Christmas In Song" are now being made. The Mixed, Boys and Girls' choirs will all be featured in this Christmas show. This ninth annual "Christmas In Song", under the direction of Eddy E. Ellegood, will be presented Friday, December 16, and Saturday, December 17.

The members selected for this year's Mixed Choir are: Sopranos: Margaret Birney, Debbie Campbell, Nancy Collier, Jill Daumler, Diane Denaro, Kris Fox, Beth Goodwin, Debra Gormanian, Shelly Kramer, Amy Lewis, Barb Robinson, Emily Stangor, Janet Strand, Lynn Sroka, Pat Tabb and Joyce Weinstein.

Moose Lodge Sells Candy

Recently, the Farmington Moose Lodge hosted a meeting on behalf of the Michigan Moose Association, District No. 10, which consists of nine lodges in Oakland and other counties.

Representing the Michigan Moose Association was vice president of District No. 10, Harold C. Harris, of Farmington, and Civic Affairs Chairman Jerry Bradow, of Bay City.

Club Members Plan Greens Market

December has many interesting events scheduled for the Farmington Greens Market, sponsored by the Michigan Horticulture Society, will be held at the Belle Isle Casino December 6 from 12 noon till 8 p.m. and on December 7 and 8 from 10 a.m. till 9 p.m.

Farmington Garden Club members will hold their own Greens market "Deck the Halls" for members, December 15 from 10 a.m. till 2 p.m. at Salem United Church of Christ.

Chairman of the market will be Mr. Gilbert Treweek assisted by Mrs. Earl Marks.

This is planned for a "Fun Day Together" making decorations and arrangements for the homes.

Also on December 15, the Beautification Council of Southeastern Michigan will hold a conference. Meet at Michigan Beautiful Crusade For Beauty.

It will be held at the Veterans Memorial Building, in Detroit from 9:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. This will be a follow-up of the Governors Conference on Natural Beauty. Any citizens of Southeastern Michigan will be interested in an action program for preserving the natural beauty of our Water Winter Wonderland are invited and urged to attend.

Maynard Klein, founder of the choir and professor of choral music and director of the choir at the University of Michigan, will conduct the concert.

Soloists will include: Janice Harasany, soprano; Priscilla New Jersey; Elizabeth Manion, mezzo-soprano; U. of M. School of Music; Waldie Anderson, tenor; Interlochen (Mich.) Arts Academy, and Paul Kiesen, bass, Cleveland, Ohio.

As the official choral group of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the choir has gained national recognition through its performances of major choral works.

The Dec. 11 program will also include the Detroit premiere performance of Arthur Honegger's "A Christmas Cantata," an offering of traditional Christmas carols by the Detroit Choir.

(Mich.) Memorial High School. Admission to the concert is $2, with no reserved seats. Tickets may be obtained at the door or in advance at the University Center Office, Rackham Educational Memorial, Detroit, Grinnell's downtown, all J. L. Hudson ticket offices and at the Masonic Temple.

Next spring, State Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow, each accompanied by a school advisor, will be guests on an expense-paid educational tour of historical shrines in Washington, D.C.

The trip will culminate with a dinner at which the 1967 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow award winners will be announced.

Play, and plans were discussed. She also said that the Michigan Congress of PTA, in cooperation with Wayne State University, is offering a six-week Leadership Training course beginning March 29, 1967. William Montgomery, of NCTE, will be the instructor. Details are to be made available at a later date.

Mrs. Robert Allen, Legislative Chairman, urged all Farmington citizens who wish to become better informed on how their tax money is being allocated, to attend the Board of Education meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. Mrs. Allen said the Board is doing an excellent job. Questions do arise in people's minds, however, and knowledge of the problems the Board faces may answer some of these questions and eliminate possible discussion.

Mrs. LeGros pointed out that the General Citizens Youth Guidance Committee is another of the organizations which the council coordinates. Edward Klein, member of the Fact Finding Committee, explained, "The purpose of the Fact Finding Committee is to develop information that will be helpful in determining the needs of the Youth in the area served."

Mrs. LeGros stated that the Council would again sponsor the annual spring Scholarship

Rackham Choir To Sing 'Messiah'

A Christmas season performance of Handel's "Messiah" will be performed by the 265-voice Rackham Symphony Choir and members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 11, in the Masonic Temple Auditorium, Detroit.

The concert is being sponsored for the fourth year by the University Center for Adult Education.

The University of Michigan - Eastern Michigan University.

Maynard Klein, founder of the choir and professor of choral music and director of the choir at the University of Michigan, will conduct the concert.

Soloists will include: Janice Harasany, soprano; Priscilla New Jersey; Elizabeth Manion, mezzo-soprano; U. of M. School of Music; Waldie Anderson, tenor; Interlochen (Mich.) Arts Academy, and Paul Kiesen, bass, Cleveland, Ohio.

As the official choral group of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the choir has gained national recognition through its performances of major choral works.

The Dec. 11 program will also include the Detroit premiere performance of Arthur Honegger's "A Christmas Cantata," an offering of traditional Christmas carols by the Detroit Choir.

(Mich.) Memorial High School. Admission to the concert is $2, with no reserved seats. Tickets may be obtained at the door or in advance at the University Center Office, Rackham Educational Memorial, Detroit, Grinnell's downtown, all J. L. Hudson ticket offices and at the Masonic Temple.

Next spring, State Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow, each accompanied by a school advisor, will be guests on an expense-paid educational tour of historical shrines in Washington, D.C.

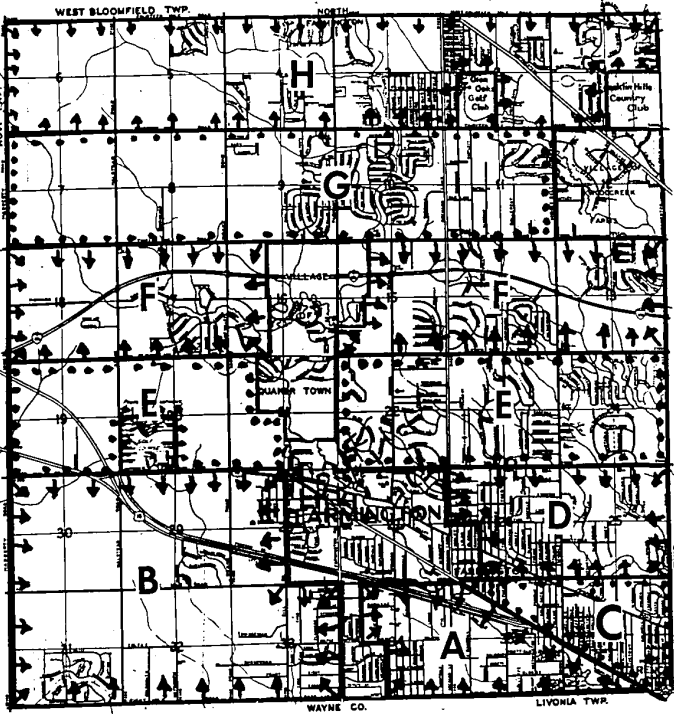

The trip will culminate with a dinner at which the 1967 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow award winners will be announced.

Play, and plans were discussed. She also said that the Michigan Congress of PTA, in cooperation with Wayne State University, is offering a six-week Leadership Training course beginning March 29, 1967. William Montgomery, of NCTE, will be the instructor. Details are to be made available at a later date.

Mrs. Robert Allen, Legislative Chairman, urged all Farmington citizens who wish to become better informed on how their tax money is being allocated, to attend the Board of Education meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. Mrs. Allen said the Board is doing an excellent job. Questions do arise in people's minds, however, and knowledge of the problems the Board faces may answer some of these questions and eliminate possible discussion.

Mrs. LeGros pointed out that the General Citizens Youth Guidance Committee is another of the organizations which the council coordinates. Edward Klein, member of the Fact Finding Committee, explained, "The purpose of the Fact Finding Committee is to develop information that will be helpful in determining the needs of the Youth in the area served."

Mrs. LeGros stated that the Council would again sponsor the annual spring Scholarship

IN THE ABOVE MAP, sections are indicated for the new on the second Monday of the month. F will be Tuesday after the second Monday, G Wednesday after the second Monday and H Thursday after the second Monday.

Mrs. LeGros Outlines Work Of PTA Council

At the Wednesday, November 16, meeting of the Farmington Council of PTA's in the Farmington Junior High School building, Mrs. LeGros outlined the work of the PTA Council.

Mrs. LeGros stated that the Council would again sponsor the annual spring Scholarship

Rackham Choir To Sing 'Messiah'

A Christmas season performance of Handel's "Messiah" will be performed by the 265-voice Rackham Symphony Choir and members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 11, in the Masonic Temple Auditorium, Detroit.

The concert is being sponsored for the fourth year by the University Center for Adult Education.

The University of Michigan - Eastern Michigan University.

Maynard Klein, founder of the choir and professor of choral music and director of the choir at the University of Michigan, will conduct the concert.

Soloists will include: Janice Harasany, soprano; Priscilla New Jersey; Elizabeth Manion, mezzo-soprano; U. of M. School of Music; Waldie Anderson, tenor; Interlochen (Mich.) Arts Academy, and Paul Kiesen, bass, Cleveland, Ohio.

As the official choral group of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the choir has gained national recognition through its performances of major choral works.

The Dec. 11 program will also include the Detroit premiere performance of Arthur Honegger's "A Christmas Cantata," an offering of traditional Christmas carols by the Detroit Choir.

(Mich.) Memorial High School. Admission to the concert is $2, with no reserved seats. Tickets may be obtained at the door or in advance at the University Center Office, Rackham Educational Memorial, Detroit, Grinnell's downtown, all J. L. Hudson ticket offices and at the Masonic Temple.

Next spring, State Betty Crocker Homemakers of Tomorrow, each accompanied by a school advisor, will be guests on an expense-paid educational tour of historical shrines in Washington, D.C.

The trip will culminate with a dinner at which the 1967 Betty Crocker All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow award winners will be announced.

Play, and plans were discussed. She also said that the Michigan Congress of PTA, in cooperation with Wayne State University, is offering a six-week Leadership Training course beginning March 29, 1967. William Montgomery, of NCTE, will be the instructor. Details are to be made available at a later date.

Mrs. Robert Allen, Legislative Chairman, urged all Farmington citizens who wish to become better informed on how their tax money is being allocated, to attend the Board of Education meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of the month. Mrs. Allen said the Board is doing an excellent job. Questions do arise in people's minds, however, and knowledge of the problems the Board faces may answer some of these questions and eliminate possible discussion.

Mrs. LeGros pointed out that the General Citizens Youth Guidance Committee is another of the organizations which the council coordinates. Edward Klein, member of the Fact Finding Committee, explained, "The purpose of the Fact Finding Committee is to develop information that will be helpful in determining the needs of the Youth in the area served."

Mrs. LeGros stated that the Council would again sponsor the annual spring Scholarship

ENGAGEMENT

The engagement of Jan Kline to Joseph P. Dragan is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Kline of Lansing, Michigan. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Dragan of 39200 W. 12 Mile Rd., Farmington. The bride attended Lansing Business University and Lansing Community College and is employed by the secretary of state in the driver services conversion unit. Dragan is a 1963 graduate of Farmington High School and is now a senior in the school of business administration at Michigan State University. An April wedding is planned.

Party Planned For Handicapped

The Farmington Association for Handicapped Children will have its annual Christmas party Friday, December 9, at East Junior High, 2000 Middlebelt Rd., from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m.

The group will be entertained by a Fact Finding Committee. The group will be entertained by a Fact Finding Committee. The group will be entertained by a Fact Finding Committee.

Cranbrook Stages Holiday Exhibit

The students of Cranbrook Academy of Art invite you to solve your Christmas gift problems during their Christmas Sale and Exhibition which opens December 9 at 8 p.m. in the Art Galleries, located in Bloomfield Hills.

There will be available handsome hand-woven scarves, beautifully glazed ceramic pillows, prints and jewelry.

WWJ Slates Writing Competition

For the second consecutive year, The WWJ Stations (WWJ AM-FM-TV, Detroit) are sponsoring a collegiate awards competition in the field of radio and television documentary writing.

The 1966-1967 competition will be open to all regularly enrolled, full-time university and college students in the areas served by WWJ Radio and WWJ-TV. Cash awards totaling $1,200 will be offered.

To be eligible, a student must submit a complete documentary script—either for radio or television—one-half hour in length and written on an issue of local, national or international importance. The original work of the entrant and be thoroughly documented. Final date for submission of scripts is February 28.

Entries will be judged on concept, excellence of writing and practical application for broadcast.

Judging will be completed by a panel of outstanding authorities in the field of documentary programming. The winners for this year's competition will be announced some time next January.

Mercy Students To See Program

The Sparrows, a 30 piece orchestra and glee club touring the United States as part of Christian Corporation's drive in education program, will appear at 2 p.m. December 19 at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

The group will present a musical review, "Music for Modern Americans."

Local News

By MARIE LONG GR. 4-3114

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rock and Mr. and Mrs. Edward McDonnell, both of Argonne Road, flew down to Florida where they attended the National Convention of Realtors in Miami Beach for five days.

A few of the Michigan group, including the Rocks and McDonnells continued on to Puerto Rico and stayed at the El San Juan Hotel for five days. They enjoyed swimming and went sightseeing. The McDonnells took a side trip to the Virgin Islands to do some shopping, while the Rocks went through the lovely old shops in Old San Juan in Puerto Rico.

Mr. McDonnell is a real estate appraiser. The McDonnells recently celebrated their 22nd wedding anniversary on November 3. They are now residents on Argonne Road, having moved there this past year, and have three sons.

Mr. and Mrs. David H. Mills and their family, of Locust Drive, spent the Thanksgiving holiday with Mrs. Mills' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Jones, of Fort Scott, Kan.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Douglas, Sr., of Farmington, have purchased the Twin Palms Apartments, in Scottsdale, Ariz., from Mr. and Mrs. Wilborn Morgan, of Phoenix, Ariz.

The apartments consist of five custom-built refrigerated units on a large landscaped lot.

Staman Acres Sitters will celebrate their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. Laura Anderson, 31550

Staman Circle, on Monday evening, December 5.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Forsythe, 31515 Rocky Crest Drive, celebrated their 52nd wedding anniversary Sunday, November 20, with their sons, having dinner at Kenwood Lounge.

2nd Sgt. Michael Hamill, who has been stationed in Frankfurt, Germany, for the past two years, recently received his honorable discharge and arrived home November 15. He is a 1962 graduate of Farmington Senior High School and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Hamlin, of Pearl Street. He says he is happy to be home in time for the holidays.

Judge Max Hulett, of Shawassaw, flew to California via Jet on October 24 to visit his son, Richard, and wife and family, in Glendale.

While there, he flew up to San Francisco over a weekend to visit his grandson, Richard Jr., and his bride, who live in Menlo Park, Calif. He is a graduate engineer from Stanford University in Palo Alto, Calif. Richard's bride is in her senior year at Stanford.

Mr. Hulett flew home on a Jet on November 10.

A family get-together on Thanksgiving Day was enjoyed by the Ed Stumbaugh family, of Haynes, Son Dick and his wife, Joan, were among the family who arrived. They will attend Andrews' University in Berrien Springs, Mich.

Dick is in his senior year at Andrews and expects to take his master's degree at Michigan State University in 1967.

The other guests were daughter Karen and her husband, Charles, and their children, of Birmingham, and son Bob and his family and the Stumbaugh daughters, of Stambaugh and Stella, who are still at home.

Governor Romney Sets Mich. Leader Dog Week

December 4 through December 10 has been proclaimed Leader Dog Week by Governor George Romney. During Leader Dog Week attention is called to the important rehabilitation program being conducted at the Rochester, Michigan, Leader Dog School.

The non-profit school, Leader Dogs for the Blind, was founded in 1929 by Lions Clubs and has since trained over 2,300 Leader Dog "teams" (Leader Dog and blind person). Leader Dogs are loaned, without charge, to all eligible applicants.

Anyone knowing of a blind person interested in obtaining a Leader Dog should see a member of the local Lions Club. Anyone interested in contributing a potential Leader Dog write to Leader Dogs for the Blind, Rochester, Michigan.

Governor's Proclamation LEADER DOG WEEK. Leader Dogs provide blind persons from all sections of the United States with a new independence. This humanitarian assistance has given the blind the ability and the courage to successfully continue their professions and vocations.

Blind people are able to minimize the handicap to the extent they can go anywhere, at any time, without fear, with

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

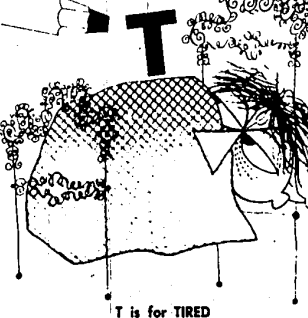

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

LEADER DOG WEEK. In Michigan, and call the attention of our citizens to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping blind persons overcome their handicap to enjoy a life of independence.

Given under my hand and the Great Seal of the State of Michigan, this twenty-fifth day of October in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-six and of the Commonwealth one hundred thirty-eight.

GEORGE ROMNEY, Governor

It is for TIED But we're happy to announce that we're not. Telephone answering service helps millions of people relax after they've left the office or when away from home. We will answer your telephone, too, pleasantly, efficiently and with relaxing, low-cost convenience.

Suburban Telephone Answering Service 24 HOUR TELEPHONE ANSWERING 474-6820

BERTHA SCHROEDER 22849 MAPLE AVE. FARMINGTON, MICH.

FARMINGTON WATCH & CLOCK REPAIR

ALL WORK GUARANTEED FOR ONE YEAR

23334 Grand River (Just East of Chrysler)

GR. 4-6530

Your Watch Electrically Regulated FREE!

ANTIQUE CLOCKS REPAIRED

NOW! at Phyllis' SPECIAL L'OREAL OF PARIS

Permanents for Colored Hair Including Haircut, Conditioner, Shampoo & Set

Reg. 17.50

Now $12.50

CHILD HAIRCUT 1.25
ADULT HAIRCUT 4.00
SHAMPOO & SET

Mon., Tues., Wed. Only

Phyllis' Coiffures

29230 GRAND RIVER AVE.
2 Blocks East of Middlebelt

Please Phone 474-9777 for Appointment

Daily & Sat. 9 to 5 - Thurs, Fri., 9 to 7