The pastor explains, "I feel that churches (and the Lutheran church can also be indicted for it) reduce the bright image of Christ with this sort of activity. The giving of money to the church shouldn't be a bartering sort of thing where you give through coercion for something tangible in axchenge." On the subject of the church's music, Mr. Fox says, "We're not only might in numbers, we're good in quality." Mrs. Marie Walek is the St. John music director. There is a senior and lupior choir, plus a children's and Sumshine Choir. The latter two are directed by Mrs. Evelyn Partin and Mrs. Sandra Weiss.
