YW Slates 100 Programs For All Ages

Registration for the Winter Program at Northwest Branch YWCA, 2540 Grand River, opens Tuesday, January 3. A schedule of classes and clubs offering over 100 programs will be offered for both men and women in all age groups. Ladies Day Out remains a popular request and a wide variety of interests are offered to those women who want to spend a day at the YWCA while their pre-schoolers are cared for in the nursery. A choice of Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday is available with 26 classes offered to fit a wide scope of interests ranging from Oil Painting, Decoupage, Sewing and Knitting, Bridge and Millinery to Physical Fitness, Jazz Dance, Bowling and Yoga.

Other specialties for the winter term "Day Out" programs will include Cooking, Fur-craft, Flower Arranging, Interior Decorating, Sketching and a Choral Group.

Those women wishing evening classes will find Sewing, Knitting, Decoupage, Physical Fitness, Powder Puff Mechanics, and Yacht Gachi (self-defense for women) available.

Program for youth and children will include Piano, Ballet, Swimming, Creative Dance, Gymnastics, Balloon Crafts, Guitar, and Teen Driver Training.

Covered programs for men and women will cover Dog Obedience, Oil Painting, Family Fencing, Ballroom Dance, Yoga, Bridge, Ski Instruction and Adult Driver Training.

Registration hours are from 9 a.m. till 7 p.m. Monday through Fridays at the YWCA, 2540 Grand River. Early registration is available. For further information call KE 7-8500.

8 Local Scouts Attend Reunion

Eight Farmington girls recently renewed memories of summer camp days in a reunion of campers and staff members Southern Oakland Girl Scout Camp.

The reunion, held in Royal Oak, took as its theme one of the Girl Scouts' favorite camp songs "Make New Friends but Keep the Old."

Girls in the Farmington area who were invited to the get-together included: Kris Wheeler, Tess Schafer, Carol Feilen, Ann Forth, Jan Woolfe, Claudia Beane, Robin Roe and Carolyn Bohn.

SIMPLIFY JOB

If a main dish for dinner is complicated, Mrs. Housewife should plan a simple dessert. If one item takes a lot of time, serve a couple quick dishes to offset it, or you'll end up spending the entire day in the kitchen.

Little Things

Stop—just a minute. Life is kind of hectic. But in the busy-busy of today and your rush to get to tomorrow—don't forget to take time out for little things. Often they're the biggest things in another person's day. Little things like taking time to send congratulations... or wish a sick friend well... or a "Hallmark card."

You care enough to send the very best. See our wide selection of Hallmark cards for every occasion.

ELIZABETH HEINRICH, another pupil of Sister Mary Ignatius at Our Lady of Mercy, did this wistful study of "Little Miss." The painting is currently on display at a show at the school.

"DAMPENED SPIRIT" is the name June Teagan gave her lonely canvas of a man walking in the rain. June is an 11th grader at Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Good Medical Year Forecast

Hopefully, we can look forward to a year of good health in 1967.

As the American Medical Association points out, the past year was one of encouraging developments that may help ensure many of us a longer, more comfortable life.

Here's some of the medical progress of 1966:

—The first successful implantation of artificial devices, popularly but incorrectly called "artificial hearts," into the chests of human beings to aid failing hearts.

—A drug that preliminary investigation indicated may improve memory.

—A dignified scientific study that gives a clearer understanding of the mysteries of human sexual response.

—Adaptation and improvement of Russian-built artificial limbs by Canadian physicians.

These devices derive motive power from the electric potential of muscle, eliminating the need for straps and wires.

THE PAST YEAR saw many American physicians volunteer their skills to help fill the immense need of the South Vietnamese people for medical care.

The program through which they volunteer for 60 days of service in Vietnamese hospitals is known as AMA Volunteer Physicians for Viet Nam.

This past year was one in which American medicine made solid proposals for the kind of medical education required to provide communities with family physicians—a new kind of physician, broadly educated in continuous, comprehensive health care.

Finally, 1966 might be characterized as the year of vaccines. A mumps vaccine proved nearly 100 per cent effective in clinical trials. A prophylactic vaccine showed nearly total effectiveness in protecting unborn infants against the deadly "Rh factor" in some mothers' blood.

Work continued on German measles vaccines, with great success reported in human trials. Wide use of existing vaccines was urged in a campaign to stamp out measles.

We are not yet at the end of the road to perfect health. Medicine makes no promise that we will ever get there—certainly not in the near future. Physicians still lose battles against such old killers as heart disease, stroke, and cancer.

But our prospects continue to improve for a rich, full life and a meaningful old age. One of the people we can thank for this is the American doctor.

3 Marriage Lectures Scheduled

During the month of January, the Michigan Inter-Fessional Association on Marriage, Divorce and the Family will be presenting at three locations lectures on Preparing for Marriage. There are four sessions to each course. The registration fee is $5 per couple and covers all four evenings. For pre-registration write: "Marriage", P.O. Box 3096, Detroit, Michigan 48231. This course is for single, engaged and newly married persons. If you desire further information call 963-8840.

Mrs. Ruth Dikoff will be doing the lecturing at Mercy College, 8200 W. Outer Drive, Detroit, Michigan on January 5, 12, 19, and 26. Mrs. Dikoff received her Master's Degree from Wayne State University and has had experience in both private and public social services settings. Mrs. Dikoff has worked as a counselor at Family Service of Metropolitan Detroit, and is currently engaged as Social Work Consultant to the Detroit Visiting Nurse Association.

A course will be presented at Catholic Charities Building, 9811 Hamilton Avenue, Detroit, by Professor Sandy G. Reid, Wayne State University, School of Social Work, on January 3, 10, 17, and 24. Reid obtained his B.S. degree from Alabama State College and his M.S.W. degree from Atlanta University. He has been active in working with Veterans Administration as a Case Worker Supervisor and also at Lafayette Clinic in Detroit.

Another course will be held at First Methodist Church, 5505 Chicago Road, Warren, on January 4, 11, 18 and 25. Kurt Spitzer will be the lecturer. He was born in Vienna, Austria, attended St. John's University in Shanghai, China, and finished his college work at Wayne State University. He has worked at Northville State Hospital, Down River Family Service and the Adult Psychiatric Clinic.

Cranbrook Art For Young People

Registrations are now being taken for the second semester of art classes for young people at Cranbrook. Young People's Art Center, sponsored by Cranbrook Academy of Art Galleries, in Bloomfield Hills, begin January 10 and continue in six sections for 90 minutes each through March 18.

Young people seven through 19 are eligible for the classes which meet Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays at 4 p.m. and on Saturdays at 9:30 a.m., 1 and 3 p.m.

Instruction stresses experience with a wide variety of professional materials. Classes are limited in size and meet in the YPAC studio, located on the lower level of the Art Academy Library Building.

For registration and further information, call 644-1600, Ext. 24.

Auto Show Contest Open For Entries

A search for "Miss Autaram" of 1967 is underway in the Metropolitan Detroit area. Robert Larivee, of Harper Woods, producing the 15th annual Autarama which will be held in Cobo Hall on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, January 20-22, issued the call for entries.

The contest is open to any single girl between 18 and 25 years of age. Girls should send a recent picture, measurements, name, address and telephone number to: Miss Autarama Contest, care of Promotions, Inc., 19717 East Nine Mile, St. Clair Shores. All entries must be in before January 14.

Miss Autarama contenders will be assigned to various displays before the Saturday night (Jan. 21) Pageant of Beauty narrows down the field. Queen of the show will be selected Sunday evening and will present awards to the winners in the nine classes of competition: antique, classic, competition, custom, go-kart, model, motorcycle, rod and dragster and sports.

Autarama, the world's biggest custom car and hot rod show, is co-sponsored by Promotions, Inc., of which Larivee is president, and the Michigan Hot Rod Association. It holds the record for attracting more people into Cobo Hall for a three-day period than any other show.

Autarama is sanctioned by the International Show Car Association and is one highlight of the International Championship Auto Show series across the United States and Canada.

Some 70,000 persons are expected to view the show this year.

HIGH MARK

At age 15, only 2,700 out of 100,000 Michigan drivers are in trouble as point violators. But at age 15, the total rises to 9,286, nearly 10 per cent of the total. At 20, the high mark of 11,040 is hit.

John Says:

We're sending you all our good wishes for a very Happy New Year! Thanks for your very generous support.
