LUNCH HOUR DINERS at Farmington's Roman House were treated to the arrival of a helicopter last week when Tom Duke (center) arrived for a flight to be a luncheon date with Norman Lawton and James Biddinger. Duke has purchased the machine and is taking pilot lessons from Ken Ross (at left), of Birmingham. Roman House owner Manuel Gorelick (at right) welcomed the two high-flyers when they arrived for luncheon.

Local News Happenings

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Akin, of Whitlock, are happy to announce the birth of a son, Stephen Paul, Jan. 3 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Pontiac. The new baby weighed seven pounds nine ounces. To welcome him home were brothers Daniel and David and sisters Janice and Cynthia. His maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tietz, of Detroit. Paternal grandfather is Robert Milton Akin, of Tonkawa, Okla. Mrs. Akin is the former Thelma Tietz.
Mrs. Larry Gilson, of Caryn Drive, flew east last week to visit her parents, the Almed Kings, of Providence, R.I. Mr. King has been ill for some time.
WHILE Harlene is in the east, Grandma Gilson will be "chief cook and bottle washer" for the little Gilsons and their daddy Larry.
Larry owns and operates his own drugstore opposite the Farmington Plaza on Orchard Lake Road. He is one of Farmington's own favorite sons who has done well in his own business.
Belated happy New Year to Larry and his family.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Felt, and their daughters, Sarah, Nancy and Janet, of Farmington Road, recently enjoyed a week's visit with Mr. Felt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Felt, of Mendon, Mass. While there they also visited other relatives.
After their return home, they entertained the Albert Simechecks, the Martin Woodwards and the Don Porittos at a tobogganing party and buffet Saturday afternoon at their home.
The Felts are blessed with a natural rolling lawn 1/2 m high on the hill down to Farmington Road.
DESNOND B. Goodwin, of Kendallwood, was made manager of traffic at Barronough Corp. He is the son of Mrs. Lillian Goodwin, of Oakland Avenue.

The Jaycee Creed
We believe:
That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life;
That the brotherhood of man transcends the severest of notions;
That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;
That government should be of few rather than of many;
That the world's great treasure lies in human personality;
And that service to humanity is the best work of life.
