

Local 4-H Enrolls 62 Members

The Los Caballeros 4-H Club started off the new year with the biggest enrollment in its history.

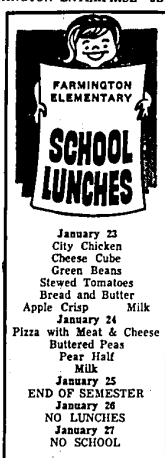

The 62 members and eight adult leaders began the year of 1967 with the following officers: Jim Kraft, president; Jan Priebe, vice-president; Debi Paull, secretary; and Jim Powers, treasurer.

Looking back on the previous year the members participated in many activities. Their fifth annual horse show in June was a great success with a large response of help and attendance.

To prepare the members for the show year ahead, planned were two Gymkhana's, one in the spring and one in the fall. A Gymkhana is a small, fun, horse show, in which just the local club participated.

The big event of the 4-H year was the County 4-H Fair in August, held in Pontiac. The club not only did exceptionally well in the horse field with Jan Priebe, Leslie Neff and Sue Latham going on to State competition in Lansing, but Jim Kraft and Debi Paull also went to Lansing, with Art and Mary Allamary, for vegetable gardening.

The club contributed to National 4-H Club Week with a 4-H display placed in the front window of Scott Colburn Saddle Shop in downtown Farmington.

Bridge Club Plans Pairs Game Jan. 25

Coming, Jan. 25, at 8 p.m., is the Open Pairs championship game at the Farmington Bridge Club. Special master points according to the American Contract Bridge League (ACBL), trophies and refreshments. For reservations, call Rose Anderson, at 476-1107.

The Farmington club has moved to the "Blue Lantern Lounge," on 12 Mile at Orchard Lake Road. We do have some parking restrictions.

Cliff Bishop has closed the Thursday night game due to serious illness in his family. The new schedule at the Blue Lantern Lounge is as follows: Wednesday 8 p.m., with master point games on the second Wednesday; Thursday morning at 10:30, with master point games on the third Thursday; Rose Anderson is director of these two games. Sunday at 6 p.m., with master point on the third Sunday, with Mille Hollis as director. For information on the Sunday game, you may call Edna Johnson at MA. 5-6425.

Master Point game for January had the following winners at the Wednesday night game: N-S: Dr. Missavage, Farmington, Mel Tollefson, Southfield.

Beauty and Simplicity...
Often lend grace to each other. In the handling of floral tributes this is especially true.

The Heeney-Sundquist Funeral Home has high regard for the beauty that careful arrangement of flowers can add to the service. We know well the feeling that is conveyed to the family by our extra care.

This Is Kimberley

NANCY O'MALLEY 474-0955

New babies seem to be the word around the subdivision lately. A baby shower given by Charlene Heuer and Marlene Angelo for Debbie Barsch and Judy Burns took place last Wednesday night. The gifts were fabulous, the food delicious and the games challenging.

Never thought Debbie would make it to the shower but as of this morning she is still with us, so maybe by next week's column we will have a new addition to Kimberley.

While the column did not appear, one of the gals from the Kimberley A.M.'ers league had a little boy. Carol and Jerome Moore are very proud of David Conway Moore who arrived four months ago. Seeing that there are already three girls at the Moore's, David was a welcome addition.

Another new arrival on the 23rd of December was Dawn Nancy Sherman whose parents are Frank and Diane of Wicklow. Diane's mother, Mrs. Krause from East Orange, New Jersey, is here to take care of Diane and of course the new baby.

We have three of our families in Kimberley moving away. Jane and Loch Atwell are on their way to Sandusky, Ohio and Vera and John Kerastis are moving to Grand Rapids, Michigan. We wish both families much success in their new ventures and let us hear from you when you get settled in your new homes.

THE THIRD COUPLE is Thelma and Charlie Miller who are moving out to the Lake. Six years ago, when we moved into Kimberley, I thought this was the end of the earth but Charlie and Thelma seem to have found their hideaway even further. They won't escape their friends around here, however, as we all plan on not letting them get out of touch. We expect to hear from them often.

On the bowling scene, Al Barsch shot a 254 game a week ago Sunday and we were real happy for him (even though he knocked my dear old dad off the sheet for high game in the mixed league on Sunday nites). It must be a conspiracy, as Jack Lawson shot a 245 game this Sunday and dear old dad is now in third for high game. Let's have a breather, eh fellas?

Just heard of June and Sam Longfield's fabulous trip to New Orleans over New Year's. They hosted some Buck VIP's to the Sugar Bowl and June reports it was great. Bourbon Street on New Year's Eve is like getting on an escalator, once you get on, there is no getting off until the end.

We wish a speedy recovery to Jean Barry who just got out of the hospital, we all hope she is feeling better and will be up and at 'em shortly.

THE MOTHERS' MARCH for the March of Dimes is again and Maribel Chalmers report: the enthusiastic turnout of our gals volunteering for duty in this very worthwhile cause. So open your hearts and your purses, girls, to these mothers who will be on their march, January 23, through January 31.

East Junior High's eighth and ninth grade football and basketball teams are to be commended on the fine jobs they do. The eighth grade football team went undefeated for the season and although the ninth grade record was two wins and three losses, they gave it the old college try and we are proud of them.

The basketball season has begun and both eighth and ninth grades have played two games and won two. Now I know why coaches get ulcers, as I attend every game. The excitement gets to be a bit much. We had a thriller last Thursday as East was leading by 18 points in the last 15 seconds. Lola Valley got hot and closed the gap to two points with one-second to play. It was Lola Valley's ball and if their Center didn't sink the shot, it would have been a tie ball game. With my voodoo in good working order, the game ended 25 to 23.

AS I CRAWLED out of the gym, I resolved my old heart could not take this every week but know I will find myself in the stands come next Thursday. These kids really play their hearts out. The boys from Kimberley on the eighth grade team are Drew Feezey, Jim White, Scott Stunnett and Steve O'Malley. Our lone representative on the ninth grade team is smelly Dave Brakora. Not to have the girls outdone by the boys, our two cheerleaders from Kimberley are Pauline Heuer and Marcia Albrecht. We refer to Marcia these days as old broken toe. Poor girl was sidelined this week because of the injury. We welcome a new family to Kimberley: Herb and Betty Hubbeck from Dearborn moved to our community a couple of months ago and this is our first opportunity to say hello! The Hubbecks have four children, three girls and one boy. They reside on Kiltartan and we all wish them well in their new house and hope they enjoy our community as much as we do.

OCC Orchestra

An invitation to talented musicians interested in performing with the Oakland University Orchestra was extended today by its new conductor, Charles W. Heffernan, associate professor of music.

Players of string and woodwind instruments are in particular need, Heffernan said. As in past years, much of the orchestra's rehearsal time will be devoted to sight-reading. One or two public concerts will be presented on the Oakland campus and a selected group of advanced players will form a small chamber orchestra.

Rehearsals will be held Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 10 p.m. in Room 139 North Foundation Hall. Musicians wishing to participate may call Heffernan at the University, 338-7211, extension 2220, or at his home, 651-9786, for details on joining the orchestra.

Cloverdale Pupils Make TV Program

Last Wednesday, Industrial Communication made a video tape of Thomas McConaghy's sixth grade class at Cloverdale School. The lesson, "How to Make Oxygen," was conducted by the teacher for viewing on Monday evening, January 23. The children were excited by the opportunity to appear on TV and participated very willingly.

This program will be part of a closed circuit educational television demonstration being sponsored by the Cloverdale PTA. Besides the lesson, the demonstration will include a live telecast of Vic Kuehn, a fifth and sixth grade teacher at Cloverdale, giving a lesson on modern math.

Educational TV is rapidly becoming a part of every day classroom learning in Farmington. The PTA, consequently, feels that this demonstration will be of special interest to every parent.

To highlight the program, Miss Minnie Zieke, Director of Elementary Education in Farmington, will speak on educational television and its effect on classroom teaching.

The Cloverdale PTA will present the program January 23 at 7:30 p.m. Anyone who is interested in educational television or television production is encouraged to attend.
