

GOP Sets Convention

Republican precinct delegates from Farmington city and township will join other 12th congressional district delegates Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m. in Walled Lake High School for their spring convention.

The 10th district will elect 57 delegates to the state GOP spring convention, scheduled for Detroit's Cobo Hall. Recently elected president of the Farmington Republican Women is Mrs. Zar Reader. A recent study stated that Mrs. William Spinning is local president. Mrs. Spinning is president of the Bloomfield Hills GOP women.

Mrs. Hogan Hostess to Club

The Farmington Woman's Club will meet Wednesday, Feb. 1 at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gladys Hogan, 3366 Glenview.

Program chairman of the day, Mrs. Harrison Johnson, has secured Mrs. Howard Kennedy to show colored slides of five countries — Israel, Lebanon, Greece, Turkey and Jordan. All of these countries Mrs. Kennedy visited last year.

DAVID R. SMITH (at right), manager of Demery's Department Store Kendallwood facility, was guest speaker Tuesday at a meeting of the Kendallwood Kiwanians.

After his address, club president Harold Larson presented Smith with the first tickets to the 1962 production of the Festival of Music.

Mrs. Allen Speaks to Area PTA

The Farmington Area PTA Council met at the Farmington Junior High School on Jan. 18.

Mrs. Robert Allen, legislative chairman, reported on the recent Conference on Fiscal Reform for Quality Education in Detroit. Mrs. Allen pointed out that the price of poor school support is poor education.

Mrs. Lorraine LeGros, president, urged all who can to attend the PTA Problem Clinic on Tuesday, March 27, in the Kellogg Center, East Lansing. Co-sponsored by the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Michigan State College of Education and Continuing Education Services.

The Problem Clinic will feature Dr. Bernard Chodoroff, clinical psychologist and psychiatrist, and his wife, Dr. Joan Chodoroff, clinical psychologist of Detroit.

Mrs. Allan Sossin, PTA Council projects chairman, announced plans are well under way for the scholarship play. The Farmington Players will present their highly successful and delightful play based on James Thurber's "Many Moons."

LIT Opens Registration Feb. 13-20

An opportunity to earn a bachelor of science degree or an associate degree entirely in evening college is offered by the Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Registration for the next evening semester begins Feb. 13 with classes starting Feb. 20.

At LIT, the evening programs are in engineering, architecture and industrial management. A student can complete all of his work for a bachelor of science degree by attending on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings for a minimum of six years.

A student also can complete studies — entirely in evening college — for an associate in engineering degree in building construction, electrical and electronic, industrial supervision and mechanical technologies. A minimum of 2½ years attendance on Tuesday and Thursday nights is required.

Anyone interested in starting these evening programs may apply immediately to the college at Northwestern and W. 10 Mile in Southfield. Counselors are available during the day or evening. Monday through Friday.

Among the larger enrollments in technical programs are accounting, 45; automotive technology, 45; commercial art, 150; data processing, 48; dental assisting, 38; electronics technology, 25; executive secretarial, 68; and food service technology, 13.

Also, Law Enforcement, 66; mechanical technology, 68; medical laboratory technology, 26; medical office assistant, 11; and professional nursing, 134.

Two-thirds, or 2,209 students, are enrolled in transfer programs which will provide them with the first two years toward Baccalaureate and advanced degrees, Manilla stated.

John Amen Arrives

This Is Kimberley

By NANCY O'MALLEY 474-9985

Short column this week, gals! Need some news items so don't your noses to the ground and give me a call.

The Kimberley Keelers, Sunday night league at Bel-Aire Laus, have completed their first half of the season and the lucky winners are Janie and Pat Hyatt, and Ann and Bob Snodden.

Seems as I made a big boo-boo last week in the column by not including Ken Kilka and Lou Kitterman on the ninth grade basketball team. Sorry fellas, didn't mean to slight anyone. Also Jan Shipley is a member of the cheerleaders. Have gone to the source of my information (Steve O'Malley) and have started him on a program of job training in the memory department.

THERE HAS BEEN an addition to the Keel family and another mouth to feed. The little one has four legs and is black and brown. You've guessed it, a German Shepherd named Snokey. Carole reports the kids are thrilled and she not so much. If the little darling gets bigger than Carole (which won't be hard to do) she says she is in trouble. Good luck!

Mr. Jack Cowart is returning to Farmington next week for a visit. Maybe some of you remember Mr. Cowart from Dunckel School. He taught there before giving up teaching and going to Cass Lake. Miss Jack has opened a camp for boys which he runs during the summer months.

Tom of Doreen Tooley's boys attended Camp Mohogoni last summer and what a fabulous place this is.

There is canoeing, archery, water skiing and each boy is assigned his own horse for the month he is there, to ride and take care of as if it were his own.

There are two sessions, each consisting of a month at a time.

On February 1 (Wednesday) Jack will be visiting Doreen and Jerry Tooley to show films of his fabulous camp and Doreen is issuing an invitation to anyone who might be interested in seeing the films or sending their boys to Camp Mohogoni next summer. Just call her at 476-5224 and let her know you are coming.

MARIE AND CHUCK Evans journeyed to Cleveland this past weekend to attend a 25th Anniversary party given for Ann and Steve Sarato, lifelong friends. Marie and Chuck stayed with Fran and Burt Rockwell, Marie's sister, so the trip was doubly rewarding, a get-together with old friends and a chance to have a good feast with Fran.

Bill Vankoughnet had a birthday Monday (an eternal 39) and Peg and Dick Lueky had a few friends in Sunday night to help celebrate over pizza and beer and a delicious cake. We all sang the happy greetings and then proceeded to stuff ourselves on the delicious food. Oh! Those bulging scales on Monday morning!

One Out of Three Enrolled In OCC Technical Programs

One of every three of the 2,209 students registered at Oakland Community College for the winter session is enrolled in a technical program, S. James Manilla, director of educational services, reports.

Among the larger enrollments in technical programs are accounting, 45; automotive technology, 45; commercial art, 150; data processing, 48; dental assisting, 38; electronics technology, 25; executive secretarial, 68; and food service technology, 13.
