C'Ville Cagers Win 2 In League

By RHODA WEISS

The Clarenceville basketball team rounded up the weekend with a 67-55 win over two league opponents, gaining their fourth win in the last five league contests. The only loss was to Clarkson, the league leader, which has not lost a league game this season.

The first Trojan win was over the Holy Angels, Holy Angels, 55-22, but domination of the boards by Ron Ray, John Thompson, and Jon McClory helped bring the Trojans back in the groove.

With only seconds remaining, Clarenceville's Chuck Welling was found in a position of the ball and was fouled with one second left on the scoreboard clock. The foul shots were also converted but the banner rang with the Trojans in the lead, 49-47.

Jon McClory played a fine defensive game, leading Holy Angels, 55-22, but domination of the boards by Ron Ray, John Thompson, and Jon McClory helped bring the Trojans back in the groove.

Wednesday evening, February 15, Coach Richard Shilling's team outdistanced the Chippewa, 74-51, and Coach Shilling had the opportunity to give promising rookies a chance to perform. Perform they did, winning Chippewa 98.5 to 85.5.

Saturday's meet proved to be a little tougher, the Raiders, 74-51, to Andover. This time the veterans took over with first place points registered by Pat Beattie, Roger Schamann, Gary Palmer, Tom Winberry and Jim Harris. North Farmington registered a 78.50 win.

Twelve of the 14 Trojans scored and the shooting average was 55 per cent. The Trojans left the floor at halftime with a 29-23 deficit.

They completely over-powered their opponents in the third period, scoring 28 points, all on baskets.

Bob Dummik connected for six and Mike Nye got five.
