HOW POULTRY MAY BE MADE PROFITABLE

View of a Chicken Range on a Poultry Farm Where From Three to Four Thousand Chickens are fleared Annually.

Hy KATHERINE A. GIIMIES The proof of the pudding is in the poultry business are set—or even before as as to know what your forest good poult may be business are set—or even before as as to know what your what it is for it you the waster there will it may not pay you to self inches wide in the poultry business for frying—and these usually bring good prices—you might do your best work in a rating some kind of early wintering fowls that will make it may not pay you to self the poultry business of the poultry business for frying—and these usually bring good prices—you might do your best work in a several and in the poultry business of the poultry business for frying—and these usually bring good prices—you might do your best will make a find the poultry business in the poultry bus

PREPARE ANIMALS FOR BEST RETURNS

MULCHING SOIL TO

RETAIN MOISTURE

Away When Water Becomes

Sparce Quantity.

Most Common Mistake Among Sprinkling Pot Should Be Throw Farmers Is in Selling Product Only Half Finished.

Conly Half Einished.

It is astonishing to observe during a visit to the stock yards how fittle-care most farmers take in conditioned minutes for many thing edge, the most common mistake is made in most in most common mistake is made in most common mistake in the vanimals. This profession when in the hands of the novice who rithes dendition. This, more than anything else, is probably accountable for the common belief that there is no money in feeding livestock. Some times stock is sold because grain is high. At other times the available times the stock is conditioned, but more frequently perhaps, many feedered of not understand what whetever the stock is conditioned. What we was a more conditioned means. With some feeders it is a case of golps with the crowdown of the stock is conditioned. Not smouth of passing the stock is conditioned. Not most of passing the stock is conditioned, but it is the hand is worth two that and nerve the can finish out and not sacrifice it in a poorly, finished condition to jave a few bushels of cent. If he has pleaty of feed and conveniences for handling his stock he can finish out and not sacrifice it in a poorly, finished condition to jave a few bushels of cent. Whether he is feeding spittle, sheep, loops or horized it in a poorly, finished condition to jave a few bushels of cent. Whether he is feeding spittle, sheep, loops or horized it in the hand is worth two three the stock is conditioned. The stock is such that the least of the provided that the least of the stock is conditioned. The stock is such that the least of the stock is such that the least of the stock is conditioned. The stock is such that the least of the stock is such that the

SIEGE AMERICAN MISSION SCHOOL

TERRORIZED GREEK OFFICIALS AT KORITSA.

CONSUL PROTESTS FOR UNITED STATES.

pel Inclusion of Southern Albania in the Kingdom of Vienna—The American mission school at Koritsa, Albania, was Monday seized by the Greek authorities there. The nearly 100 Albanian siris students were told they would be tought by Greeks. The information of the Aristo and the Aristo and the Aristo and the Aristo and the Aristo sea.

A large number of Albanians who recently returned to Koritsa from America and other foreign bountries have been arreated and persicuted. They were released from detection only when the Albanians promised to join in the agitation for the incorporation of the dighter in Greece.

The British consul at Monastir has entered a vigorous protest with the Greek government on behalf of the Americans.

Greek government on benait of the Americans.

The whole affair forms part of the Greek terrorization of the Albanian oppulation with the object of compelling them to agree it the inclusion of the whole of Southern Albania in the kingdom of Greece.

Cholera Scare in Europe.

Belgrade, Servia.—The cholera epidemic is causing consternation in southeastern Europe, its extension north of the Danube being especially north of the Danube being especially alarming.

The hot weather has had much to do with increasing the number of cases. The disease has spread, not so much through ractual contagion as through drinking from tainted streams on the border. Field fruit is another source of infection. Moslems celebrating the feasts of Batam are not over particular when tiley eat after an all-day fast.

Fresh cases are reported from numerous points in Bosnia, but they are relatively mild.

Explosion Kills Four Men.

Fatal Wreck Near New York.

Fatal Wreck Near New York. There persons were killed and 20 injured early Monday in a head-on crash of two Long Island relivoid clearly crains lat College Point, L. I. Of the injured one will die. Most of the injured were mill employee on their way to work. The crash occurred on a corve not far from the station. The trains, runing 40 miles an hodr, rounded the curve from opposite directions almost similateneously, and the crash was the evitable. The steel cars backled but did not telescope. This fact doubless saved many lives.

Pardoned After Many Years.
Columbus. O.—After spending practically all of his 'life since he attained to manhood, inside the pentientiary wails, John Taborn, the oldest coun'red in the Ohlo pentientiary, was pardoned by Governor Cox. Taborn had been a prisoner for 43 years. He was convicted of muyder in Delaware county in 1876 and sentenced to life imprisonment. He is now 65 years of age.

British R. R. Strike Settled

British R. R. Strike Settled.
London—The strike of the railroad men in the British Isles was practicalprought to an end Saturday.
Officials of the companies reached an agreement, with the representatives of the men's unions on the basis of the reinstatement of all strikers who agree to handle all the traffic which the railroads are bound to carry under the law.

A new home for incorrigible and homeless boys to take the place of the Beulah home at Boyne City, disorrantzed, is being established on the shores of Mr. Caim lake, two miles west of Ablon.

One thousand lots in the outskirts of Missey of the state place to, that figure, have been sold to'an indianaphile company, and there now is no more state-owned land within the limits of that, city.

Prof. Thomas C. Trueblood, of the department of oratory at the University, has received the subject for the Michigau-Chicago/Northwestern triangular debate this faul It is "Resolved, that the estate phould, cetablish, a cahedule or minimum waspe for unakilly ed 'labor, constitutionality, conceded,"

PREATTY NAMES FOR BOOKS

Real Old-Time Tiltes Bound Decidedly Stranga to the Eye of the Reader Today.

The following are some of the curious titles of old English books:
"A Most Delectable Sweet Perfumed Nosegay for God's Saints to Smell At."

A Most Distoctants Sweet Permines
A. Most Distoctants Sweet Permines
A. Most Distoctant Sweet Permines
A. Most Distoctant Sweet Permines
A. Most Distoctant Sweet Swall
Care Distoctant Sweet Swall
Lows of Sairstion.

"A Sigh of Sorrow for the Sinners of Zion Breathed Out of a Holo in the Wall of an Earthly Vessel Known
Among Men by the Name of Samuel
Fish" (a Quaker who had been imprisoned).

"Eggs of Charity Layed for the Chickens of the Covenant and Bolled
With the Mater of Divine Love. Take
"The Spiritual Mustard Pot to Make the Soul Sneeze With Devotion."
Most of these were published in the Most of these were published in th time of Cromwell.—London Strand.

Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a set and sur remely for infants and children, and see that its Bears the Signature of CASTORIA, and see that it is likely to the second of the second of Children Cry for Fictcher's Castoria.

After a Pleasant Evening.

Mr. Sydney Buxton toold an amusing story for the purpose of illustrating a point sale seed, who had been british to disc seed to bring a big lantern. After a very jovale evening the convival one left and struggied home it through the mod, firmly gripping his heavy burden by the handle. Next morning he received this message from his host: "Herewith your limitern; please return parrot and cage."

Scorned.

"it's true, Miss Plummer, that 1 should not have tried to kiss you on such a elight acquininance and I am heartly sorry. What can I do in palliation of my offence?

"If you are sincere, Mr. Pinhead, in what you say, you might betake yourself to some lother part of the lawn and thave the coast clear for a man I see approaching who has the reputation of getting what he goes after."

After the Premiers.

After the Wigglesworth.

"Targedy? Trakedy?" echoed Wigglesworth.

"Why Wininger, old man, I really was trying to help you! I thought all along the darned thing was a very annusing farce!"—ludge.

Rejected.

He—Be mine and you will make me
the happlest man in the world.

She—l'm very sorry; but unfortunately I want to be happy myself.

REPEATING SHOTGUNS.

Winchester Repeating Shotgans are not only safe to shoot, but sare to shoot. They are easy to load or unload, easy to take down or put together, and strong and reliable in every way. That's why the U.S. Ordance Board endorsed them as being safe, sure, strong and simple. Over 450,000 satisfied sportsmen are using them. Stick to a Winchester and You Won't Get Stuck

. • | • Constipation Vanishes Forever

Prompt Relief—Perm CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS never fail. Purely vegeta-ble—act surely but gently on

Genuine must bear Signature

Brent Good

Apropos of the divorce evil, Dr. Herbert M. Shikbolm, the Reno statistician, said with a sigh:
"An exhaustive study of divorce statistics forces me to the belief that the average woman's heart is like a toy balloon—lighter than air, and most restless men tied to some-body."

Speak Louder.

An old farmer in Ayrahire had a habit of feigning deadess when he wanted to avoid answering an awk ward question. One day a neighbor ward question. One day a neignor-said to him:

"I'd like to borrow your cart this morning: mine is having a 'spring mended."

"You'll have to speak louder,' the old farmer answered. "I don't hear very well-and I don't like to lend my cart, anyhow."—Glasgow Spy.

Plaint of a Plant.
"But, your honor, my wife won't let

"But, your honor, my wite won't let me work."
"Wor'l let you work?"
"No'! I got a job last week, and she made me quit."
"What kin!" a position was it?"
"What kin!" a position was it?"
in the audilence where a significant in the audilence where a significant in could come down twice a day and kiss no."—Judge.

Rejected.

He-Be finite and you will make me the happiest man in the world.

Sine—lim very sorry; but unfortunstely I want to be happy myself.

"That if at man over there used to be a page in the Secate."

"A page, eth 'Well, he's grown into a volume naw."

HIDES TANNED For Robes and Coats

READERS of this paper destriction in the columns about insist upon having what they appear to the columns about insist upon having what they appear to the columns about the columns are columns about the columns Knocking, az a profession, is badly, vercrowded.

He who has no mind to trade with the devil should be so wise as to keep away from his shop.

Some people carry economy crares to excess. A dispatch records attempts of a man to fit new bristles to an old toothbrush.

Can't Buy Those.
"I suppose your neighbors, the New-ches, have the best of everything."
"Yes, except manners."

Conditional.

"Figures can't lie."

"Well, that depends on whether they are on paper or in a bathing suit."— exchange.

Tommy's Hands.

Ma—Tommy, did knu-wash your hands this morning?

Tommy-I washed one of them, mother. The other didn't need it.

"There is one enterprise into which systybody manages to get."
"What is that?"
"The directory."

Nothing To It.
"I believe in calling a spade a spade."

"Guess you might as well. I've never been able to pass one off for a diamond or a heart."

His idea. Coed—I don't think clothes makes the man! College Man—Nor I. I think it all depends on the cigarettes he smokes,

Post Toasties

Bully Good-Breakfast, Lunch or Supper

Ready to eat direct from package with cream and sugar-sometimes add fruit.

A genuine treat that meets favor with guests and home folks.

Sold by Grocers

Everywhere!

