- FACT FINDER -

Question: Why is the B. of C. so interested in promoting City-Township consolidation?

Answer: The Board has in no way promoted, recommended, or encouraged consolidation but has acted as a coordinator to bring together University experts, citizens and elected officials of the entire Farmington community to study the pros and cons of consolidation as well as other alternatives open to the future development of the community.

Floral Park News

E. R. PHILLIPS GR. 4-6575

Mrs. Zelma Martin, of 23022 Floral, has just returned from Daytona Beach, Florida, where she was staying with a friend, Mrs. Alice Hall, who is 85 and had been ill. Mrs. Martin says that she is fine now, for which she is pleased.

The plans are made for the fortieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Stevenson, of 23168 Floral. The celebration is planned for March 12 to be held at Topinka's Restaurant. There will be simply the family in attendance. Mr. and Mrs. Russell Stevenson of Warren, Michigan, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bell of Dearborn, Michigan, their daughter and son-in-law, and Mr. and Mrs. Stevenson's other sons, Richard and Robert, who live at home.

Mrs. Patricia Symonds, the daughter of Mrs. Barbara Love of 23069 Lilac, has been visiting the family this week while en route from her home in Springfield (Delaware County), Pennsylvania, to her new home in San Antonio, Texas. Mrs. Symonds plans on flying this week to San Antonio, where her husband is now waiting.
