Donna Lang was five years old on March 3, and ice cream and cake was shared by her and her two neighbor friends, Linda and Mike Oldfield. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lang's other children also shared in the celebration. They are Jo Ann, Leila, Peggy and Dale. Julie Lardie, a close friend of the Langs also joined the celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Lang also enjoyed a visit with relatives of

Hamilton Life Ups Coverage

Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America has announced liberalized coverage on its accidental death benefits.

This liberalization embraces all contracts currently in force by the company which now number in excess of 20,000 in the state of Michigan.

Mr. Lang from Fort Wayne, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. P. Eisenblase and their daughter Connie spent a weekend with them recently. The Langs reside at 2115 Hawthorne.

Mrs. Marie Curcio of 2182 Floral expects her mother to be spending some time with her at her home this coming week, and so by the time this is in print, Mrs. Mary Rose, 83, should be visiting her daughter. Mrs. Rose lives in Detroit. Mrs. Curcio also has her two sons, Lawrence and Stephen living at home with her.

SEAMAN Neil Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Harden of 2248 Violet, arrived home on leave on Friday, March 10. His leave extends until Easter Sunday, when he will leave for San Diego, California, where he will board the U.S.S. Tripoli.

Our sympathies are extended to the family of Miss Kayann Smith of Latic, who passed away last week.

Kendallwood Sets 'Virginia' Theme

"Virginia's contributions to American Independence" will be the theme of Kendallwood 'Virginia' Theme celebration this year.

The announcement came from Jack A. McMann, whom the board recently elected general chairman of the annual event.

Farmington Lists 10 Merit Winners

Eight students from North Farmington High School and two from Farmington High have been announced winners of Certificates of Merit from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

Those from North Farmington are Steven D. Gordon, John E. Harris, Leigh W. Koops, Jan E. Maisel, Paul C. Mingo, Donald D. Peterson, Janice M. Purdy and Leslie J. Stein.

Winners from FHS are Frances Ann Livingston and James Hotler, who has transferred out of the school district.

The local students are among the group of 14,200 finalists in the United States who will vie for an approximately 2,300 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1967.

They qualified by confirming their high scores on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test with their performance on the scholastic aptitude test.

Robert V. Stavenik was elected deputy chairman. Founding chairman Robert H. Nelson will serve as consultant.

The celebration was also extended into Colony Park Subdivision, developing to the north of Kendallwood. Colony Park also adjoins Woodlake School, where most of the festivities take place.

Residents will be asked to decorate their premises during the early part of the weekend before July 4. Thompson-Brown Co. will sponsor a judging of the decorations.

Criteria in judging will be (1) patriotic theme connected with American Independence and extra credit for those working on the special Virginia theme, (2) imagination and (3) effort.

Sergeant Peek Receives Honor

Sgt. Ronald M. Peek, 38th USA Missile Detachment, stationed in Germany, has been selected Soldier of the Quarter, within the 51st USA Artillery Group.

Peek competed with five candidates for the award. All were graded on job knowledge, general military subjects, current events and military appearance and bearing.

Peek was rewarded with a Letter of Commendation from the 51st Group Commander LTC Walter D. Bailey, an engraved plaque, a tour of Ulm, Germany and a three-day pass.
