Board Seeks MSU Enrollment To Finance Festival

Directors of the Farmington Board of Commerce are seeking advice on ways to finance the Founders Festival.

The first year of the Festival, the Board donated $1,425 to get it off the ground. In 1966, the Board received donations totaling $1,400, but expenses were in excess of $2,500.

Board opinion is that the Festival will have to pay for itself. Funds will still be solicited from area businesses, but another source of revenue must be found.

Ideas to obtain funds the Board has come up with include: * Sell booster buttons and other gimmicks. * Sponsor a benefit dance or show in the late spring, asking business and other organizations to help sell tickets. * Receive a percentage or rental from participating concessions. * A Board-sponsored professional carnival during the Festival.

Kite Safety Posters Can Win Prizes

The Detroit Edison Company has sent announcements of a poster contest to local school boards throughout the southeastern Michigan area served by the company.

The contest is open to school children from kindergarten through grade nine and offers prizes ranging from Detroit Edison stock to $10 gift certificates.

This year, the company is encouraging youngsters to design posters outlining safe kite flying practices. Posters must be drawn, painted or pasted on 8 1/2 by 11 inch paper, evidencing originality and submitted with identification on the reverse side to the Farmington office, 33409 Grand River, before May 1.
