Dems To Hear Philip Power Town Club Party To Aid Funds

Philip Power, publisher of the Observer Newspapers and the Farmington Enterprise, will be the featured speaker at the next meeting of the Farmington Democratic Club. The meeting is scheduled for 8 p.m. Wednesday, April 5, in the community room of the City National Bank, Ten Mile at Orchard Lake roads, (entrance in rear).

Power is expected to talk about the role of the newspaper in today's society. He also has a wide background of experience in government, having served as administrative aide to Congressman Paul Todd (D. Mich.) during the last session of Congress.

Farmington Democratic Club Chairman Gerald Freedman said the meeting is open to the public as are all meetings of the club. "We are fortunate to have someone of Mr. Power's stature take time out from a busy schedule to address our group," Freedman said.

The Farmington Town Club will present its twentieth annual card party and fashion show in East Junior High, 25000 Middlebelt Road, on Thursday, April 6, at 7:30 p.m.

The fashion show will begin promptly at 8 p.m.

Mrs. Eugene Henderson has proclaimed "Patio Party" as this year's theme. Everything from permanent floral plants to checked gingham table cloths will carry out the patio theme, and will be given away later as table and door prizes.

TOWN CLUB members, taking tickets and serving refreshments, will be wearing summer shifts and hostess aprons. Patio furniture will decorate the stage.

Fashions will be modeled by Town Club members in an accompaniment of organ music. An open invitation is extended by the Town Club to anyone who wishes to make up

GOP Women Set April 3 Meeting

All women of the Farmington area are invited to attend the next meeting of the Republican Women's Organization of Farmington to be held April 3 at 12:30 p.m. at Independence Green, Grand River and Halsted Rd. The featured speaker will be Mrs. Mary F. Allison, secretary of the Farmington District Library board of trustees.

Mrs. Allison will discuss the need to pass the library millage to be voted on May 22, according to program chairman Mrs. Herbert Harms. For further information, call Mrs. Harms at NA 63991.

SPRING AHEAD

The promise of Spring is expressed with sunshine, hints of warm weather ahead, months of bright colors, carefree fun and gay hearts.

Spring is enroased "Best" with a new coiffure and is liting to your spirits. New, different "The Diamond look," with its many variations is being introduced to women across the nation. With a positive wardrobe, a woman can experiment with different hair colors—perhaps exploring a different personality with each change. She can also select fashions in colors she could never wear before... and be more attractive than ever.

Gina: Inspired by Italian screen star Gina Lollobrigida, this flirtatious hair style calls for saucy curls at the top and sides, and shiny bangs curved at the browline, finishing with a brief head hugging nape-line.
