Now find the man who sold you the insurance

When part of your world crashes around you, you need help fast. Unless your insurance agent goes into action as soon as he hears from you, your insurance isn't giving you the protection you expected.
As independent agents, we serve the interests of our customers first. We make sure you get help when you need it. And because we are independent, we owe allegiance to no one company.
Look for our Big "I" symbol when you need insurance for your home, car, or business. It's your guarantee of service beyond the call of duty. To display it, an insurance agent must meet professional standards designed to protect you.

Olde Franklin's Almanac

By Doree Goldstein 628-9259 & Norma Gelber 626-5734
Al and Lorraine Gale fresh from Las Vegas, San Francisco, and Hawaii and Kenny Rosen from a student trip to Mexico.
The day before he moved into his new home, David Henrich, industriously sweeping up his basement floor, was dismayed to find that he was doing just that—sweeping up his floor. It turns that the previously poured cement floor had just crumbled away and so on moving day David, Vivian, Michael, Sara and Amy had to put up with the pouring of a new floor along with the usual chaos. So a special welcome to the Henrichs and to Olde Franklin Towne's other new family, Dr. Gerald Rakotz, his wife Shelley, their two daughters and brand new baby son. Incidentally John and Fran Mazarella who formerly lived on Ramblewood and have moved to New Jersey are the parents of a second baby girl. Thought you'd like to know.
And congratulations to Dick and Natalie Linkin who happily celebrated the Bar Mitzvah of their son Andrew this past weekend.
Rox Must, subdivision association's recording secretary, had to write even more notes the last few weeks following surgery for throat polyps. Hope you're feeling well now.
Wednesday, April 5, is the date of Fairview PTA's first fund raising event. Called a "Bid and Buy," it will give those in attendance a chance to bid on new merchandise which has been donated by Fairview parents and come away with it at a bargain price, the proceeds, of course, going to the PTA. All sorts of valuable things have been gathered together from a mini-bath to a facial sauna and gourmet desserts will be served—all for the price of $1.
