Bill and Effie Dorough left here December 24 and drove to Wilsonville, Alabama where they had Christmas with Bill's oldest sister and her family. All that day relatives, mostly nieces and nephews, dropped in to visit with them — there must have been at least 50. They surely enjoyed their week there, especially Bill who went quail hunting getting enough for several delicious dinners. The weather was warm and beautiful.

The Doroughs then toured the south going to Arizona via Mississippi, Arkansas, Oklahoma, Texas, and New Mexico to Tucson where they arrived January 7. Here they took an apartment and stayed until March 6. They drove to Las Vegas where they met their son, Tim, and his wife, Jo-Anne, who were on their way from Wilbraham, Mass. to Coronado, Calif. for the World Book Managers' Convention. They had three delightful days together in Vegas.

About the middle of February, Bill went to Guaymas, Mexico, for some fishing. He and his guide caught enough red snappers so that Bill returned to Tucson with 100 pounds of delicious filets. Bill and Effie drove across to Nogales, Mexico, several times. They returned to Wood Creek last week.

Philo and Agnes Wright, with two of their special friends from Chicago, have just returned from a trip to Hawaii. They reached Honolulu on March 4. A luau was scheduled for them on Sunday. The following day they toured the island of Oahu, then came Maui and its fascinating sights where they enjoyed three days before flying to the big island of Honolulu, where they stayed at Waikiki. On this island there are so many things to do and so many things to see! They had to fly home the 19th.

Son, Jim Wright with his wife, Ellen, and their two daughters, are here from Olean, N.Y. for a visit. They will probably drive home this Sunday.

Alger and Beulah Clark got in this Tuesday afternoon after a delightful trip to warmer parts of our country. They left here February 5, and drove to Tulsa, Oklahoma, where they visited friends; then to Dallas, Texas, where they visited Alger's son's wife's folks; next to San Antonio where Beulah's son is purchasing agent at Lackland Air Force Base; then to see friends in Tucson and Phoenix, Arizona.

Paul and I had a very real thrill when the phone woke us at 2:30 a.m. last Saturday and our son-in-law, Grant Gascoigne, said he and Dottie had just arrived at Metropolitan Airport en route home from a wonderful vacation in Peru and Ecuador.

We'll help put your wife in a home

If your wife has been talking about a new home lately, maybe you'll want to know something about a mortgage. There's a lot more to it than the amount of money you borrow. Where the money comes from is just as important. And so are the things written into your mortgage.

At NBD, for example, we have the people and facilities to give you personal attention when you apply. And because we're a full-service bank, we can keep on helping you with our range of financial services long after you move in.

Our 90 offices make NBD the most convenient place in town to apply for a mortgage. There's no application fee. Closings take only thirty to forty-five minutes and are often made at the same office. This saves you a special trip downtown. And closing costs are usually less than a hundred dollars, excluding insurance.

When we write your mortgage, we spell out exactly what rate you'll be paying, what you're paying for, and what you don't have to pay for. And we'll write in pre-payment privileges that can save you hundreds of dollars if you sell your home.

Maybe you're thinking about a mortgage loan right now. If you are, be sure to think about this: we can help you.
