Girl Scout News

JUDY ZAHLER 474-4527

Troop 127 Brownies from Alameda School, Mrs. Dorothy Roe and Mrs. Ann Sommer-ville co-leaders, has been busy for the last few months learning about dramatics. They planned and acted out five or six plays for each other, making all the props and simple costumes themselves.

In this way they learned a little about the art of acting and a lot about being a good audience. As a reward for their hard work, the girls went on a trip to the Detroit Institute of Arts to see the production of "Young Tom Edison," which was put on by a New York company.

After the performance the girls were invited to an autograph party in the Crystal Room at the Institute where the east of the play auto-graphed their programs for them.

Like other troops in the area these girls have been busy getting ready for the recent neighborhood birthday party. Some senior Scouts came to one of their regular meetings to teach them the "Piper's Song," which was to be sung at the party.

They also discussed Scouts from other countries and answered the roll call at their meeting by naming one of the countries where there are Girl Scouts or Girl Guides. They used their dramatic training by acting-out the proper way for Girl Scouts to treat one another. After this, the girls received their World Friendship Pins.

Two weeks ago, the troop went out to the Spicer farm for a tour. They saw various farm animals, but the high point of the trip was being able to see the one-week old baby lambs. Needless to say, they had a wonderful time.

For their families at Easter, the troop made bunny-face baskets and filled them with decorated eggs. Some of the girls were covered with foil and painted and some of them were decorated with tissue paper.

Brownie 604 from Our Lady of Sorrows, Mrs. Noreen Martin and Mrs. Pat Ratcliff co-leaders, took advantage of the recent school holiday and went on a tour of the Ford Plant in Dearborn to see how automobiles are assembled.

The troop is in the process of making more booklets to send to the soldiers in Vietnam. Their last effort along this line was so successful and well-received that they decided to continue making them.

The sponsor of this troop, the Altar Society at Our Lady of Sorrows, is having a card party in the near future and the girls came up with an idea to make the presentation of door prizes easier and less time-consuming. They are going to make paper suitcases for each person and in some there will be a number. Each person who receives a suitcase with a number inside will receive a door prize.
