

Feminine Farmington

THIS TRIO OF Farmington Artists' Club members is busy preparing for the group's annual spring exhibit and sale to be held beginning Friday, April 21, at the First Savings and Loan, 2275 Orchard Lake Road at Grand River. Left to right are Mrs. Jean Burger, exhibit chairman, of 25144 Castlereigh Dr.; Mrs. Lynn Jenks, president, of 28926 Leamington Drive; and Mrs. Wanda Northern, program chairman, of 26377 Kiltarten Drive. All art work on display will be original and will be in a variety of media.

The Farmington Artists' Club will hold its annual spring exhibit and sale on Friday, April 21, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; Saturday, April 22, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.; and Sunday, April 23, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the First Farmington Savings and Loan, 2275 Orchard Lake Road at Grand River Avenue, in Farmington.

All the artwork to be on display is original and will cover a wide range of media including oil, acrylics, watercolor, tempera, ink, pastels and also some sculpture. All paintings in the gallery will be framed. There will also be a small corner called "Art Artist Budget." These pictures will be priced at $10 or less and will not be framed, for those who wish to do their own framing.

Mrs. Emily Fox, well known Michigan artist, will be the featured guest artist. Mrs. Fox has won many awards and prizes with her paintings. She is currently president of the Palette and Brush Club of Detroit and a member of the Michigan Watercolor Society.

The Farmington Artists' Club has been active for only two years, has a membership of 15 active and enthusiastic Farmington artists.

Meetings are held once a month with varied and interesting programs, speakers, demonstrations and critiques by well known teachers of the metropolitan and surrounding area. Each of the previous four exhibits presented by this group of Farmington artists has been well attended and received by the public.

The gallery paintings will be judged by Stanley Hench, research teacher of the Livonia school system. Ribbons for first, second and third place will be awarded plus two honorable mention.

There is also a popular feature "The Popularity Award" in which all attending the exhibit are asked to vote on their favorite painting of the show.

There is no admission charge and refreshments will be served. Whether buying or just looking all visitors will be cordially welcomed by the Farmington Artists' Club.

Mrs. Walker Heads Crusade

Appointment of Mrs. Roger Walker, 2290 Manning, as a division chairman for the Michigan Cancer Foundation's annual educational Crusade this April was announced today by Mrs. Henry Tilton, women's crusade chairman for the drive.

As division chairman for Farmington, Mrs. Walker will be responsible for the appointment of other volunteers for key posts in her community. The crusade this year will involve a door to door approach in which the Michigan Cancer Foundation volunteers will ask answers to questions important in a long range study into the possible causes of breast cancer, number one killer of American women.

Lorraine Rokicki To Wed In May

Mrs. and Mr. Henry P. Rokicki, of 2961 Gilchrist, announce the engagement of their daughter, Lorraine Rokicki, to Donald Joseph Melotik, son of Mrs. Josephine Melotik of Detroit and the late Mr. Melotik. A May wedding is planned.

The bride-to-be, a teacher in Farmington, was graduated from Wayne State University. Her fiancé holds degrees from Wayne State University and is affiliated with Sigma Xi and Alpha Chi Sigma Fraternity.

Consumption Record

Consumption of nickel in the free world is estimated at a record 720 million pounds in 1965 exceeding consumption of the metal in 1964 by 60 million pounds.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Erickson of 26253 Kiltarten announce the engagement of their daughter, Gail Lynn, to Keith H. Coykendall II. Keith's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Keith H. Coykendall of 2915 Glenmuir, and he is an aviation apprentice at the Naval Air Base in Memphis, Tenn. Both are 1966 graduates of North Farmington High School. Gail is employed at the Hudson's Northland Interior decorating studio. The wedding date has been set for July 1, 1967.

Farmington Pair In Albion Play

Two Farmington students at Albion College are taking part this weekend in the Albion College Players production of "The Pied Piper of Hamelin." Senior Richard A. McGaw is an assistant director and freshman Dennis E. Moore has the role of a conductor.

Near Perfect

Atomic clocks are said to be so accurate that they will lose or gain only one second in 15 years.

Diane Moulton Is Bride Of Donald J. Skarritt

Diane Lynn Moulton became the bride of Donald J. Skarritt of Toledo at a double ring ceremony in the First Methodist Church of Birmingham at 7:30 p.m. on April 14. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Moulton Jr. of 1248 Cedarholm Lane, Bloomfield Hills. The bridegroom's parents are Mrs. George Skarritt of Union Lake and the late Mr. Skarritt.

Officiating ministers were Dr. Ernest Thomas and Dr. William O. Moulton Sr., grandfather of the bride.

The bride's gown was of empire design with an easy sheath silhouette. The sleeveless bodice of Alencon lace with batteau neckline was accented in fine seed pearls and crystal droplets. The gown was covered by a full organza coat which featured a graceful chapel train.

Her headpiece was an organza pillbox applied with Alencon lace and jewels, and she carried a colonial bouquet of amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Maid of honor for the bride was Carol Wheeler of Farmington, and her other attendants were Sue Nauman of Farmington, Loretta Young of Pontiac and Mary Suda of Birmingham. Junior bridesmaids were Carol Moulton, cousin of the bride, and Lori Moulton, a sister.

Twin niece and nephew of the bridegroom, Kimberly and Kevin Skarritt performed the duties of flower girl and ring bearer.

Their father, the bridegroom's brother Richard, acted as best man, and ushers included Robert Atkins and Carl Westerberg of Pontiac and Wendell Smith of Plymouth. A reception in the church fellowship hall was held following the ceremony, and the bridal couple left for a wedding trip to Florida. They will make their home in Toledo.

MRS. KENNETH SILER Trinity Shrine Has Installation

Trinity Shrine No. 44 held its thirty-ninth installation at the Redford Mason Temple with approximately 400 in attendance. Mrs. Hazel Lynch served as mistress of ceremonies and extended a welcome to all.

Mrs. Kenneth Edna Siler was installed as Worthy High Priestess and Philip Phillips as Watchman of Shepherds. Edna was escorted to the East by her sons, Kenneth and Richard Siler. Philip was escorted to the East by his wife, Geneva.

Officers installed for the ensuing year were: Beatrice Browning, Noble Prophetess; Alex McKenzie, Associate Watchman of Shepherds; Mary Hunter, Worthy Scribe; Eleanor Paynter, Worthy Treasurer; Betty Clark, Worthy Chaplain; Margaret Williamson, Worthy Shepherdess; Rose Mahoney, Worthy Guide.

Appointed Officers include: Beverly Dixon, Worthy Herald; Clarence Chambers, Carl Birch, Rex Valentine, Wiseman; James Williamson, King; Beatrice Dixon, Queen; Wanda Menke, Margaret Karl, Geneva Phillips, Hand Maid; Alma Primrose, Organist; Betty Weaver, Worthy Guardian; Woodrow Weaver, Worthy Guard.

Hildegard McCaleb is retiring Worthy High Priestess.

Seaworthy Hardware

A popular hardware for small boats is made of nickel stainless steel because the material is strong, tough, and resists corrosion and abrasion.

Wheels aligned and balanced!

For safety's sake, let us put your car's wheels in perfect alignment and balance. Saves tire wear!

BOB ROZENBOOM SERVICE
24310 GRAND RIVER
at POWER
474-7446

YOUNG MEN'S Christian ASSOCIATION

SOROPTIMISTS Mrs. Ella Cottone (standing), Mrs. Nadine Cardwell and Miss Minnie Zielke chat with Dave Comfort, director of Farmington Y.M.C.A. re-

Soroptimists Plan Town Hall Series

Soroptimist Club of Farmington's plans are underway for a Town Hall Series to be held at the beautiful Northland Theater, seating capacity of 1475 people, with ample parking. Dates are October 26, 1967, November 16, 1967, March 21, 1968, and April 18, 1968, 11 a.m. to 12 noon, followed by a "Celebrity Luncheon." Location of luncheon will be announced at a later date.

Walter Slezak, world renowned personage, author, star of stage, screen, radio and television, will be the first speaker of the series on Thursday, October 26, bringing to the audience the topic "Show Business is No Business," an authoritative and inimitable discourse on the fabulous (and slightly crazy) world on the other side of the asbestos curtain.

Proceeds for the season will be donated to the Farmington Y.M.C.A. building fund, a most needed and worthy cause.

garding the club's Town Hall Series, proceeds of which will go to the YMCA building fund.

For further information, call 626-2556 or write to Farmington Town Hall Series, P.O. Box 564, Farmington, Michigan 48024.

Washday Metal

Recently introduced tubs for modern automatic washers are made exclusively of nickel stainless steel. In such use, stainless steel does not chip, crack, or collect dirt and is not affected by the strongest bleaches and detergents.

PLAN NOW WE CAN HELP YOU

- 12 Acres of Hardy, Growing Stock
- Over 20,000 Plants
- Many Unusual Shrubs

Greenway Acres Nursery

3810 W. 1 MILE RD.
(1 Mile W. of Farmington Rd.)
EXT. 6-2545 GR. 6-2530

with an advertisement in the Farmington Enterprise. If your sales are smoldering, give us a call and we'll help with an ad specifically created to fan the flames. We can help you build a bonfire every week ... and the Farmington Enterprise gives you widespread coverage to keep your fire burning.

Start your fire this week with an ad in the Farmington Enterprise. Just call GR 4-6225 and ask for an ad rep to stop in with his book of matches.

