Anne Sonnsmith, R. Quigley Wed In OLS Ceremony

Our Lady of Sorrows Church in Farmington was the scene of a double ring ceremony Friday evening uniting Miss Anne Sonnsmith and Richard Quigley in marriage. The Rev. Thomas P. Beahan officiated before an altar decorated with white lilies and chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Sonnsmith of 36130 Grand River Ave. are the bride's parents. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Quigley of Kankakee, Ill. The bride's gown was of ivory silk faille in empire design with bishop sleeves. Waistline and sleeve edges were trimmed in embroidered Alencon lace. She wore a short mantilla and carried gardenias as with English ivy. Maid of honor was Miss Shiawassee PTA To Raise Funds. Shiawassee PTA is sponsoring a bake sale at the Kroger Store in the Farmington Plaza Saturday, April 22 from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. This will be its last fund raising event of the year.

Through funds available from past projects, Shiawassee PTA has been able to provide the following within the past school year: Donations to summer recreation; $25.00 donation to Farmington scholarship fund; $25.00 refreshments for room parties; composite picture for each sixth grader moving up to junior high; concert by the Detroit Woodwind Quintette; assembly program—Ed Johnson's Marionette Show.

Miss Emmett Wed To John Uecker.

The First Presbyterian Church of Farmington was the setting at noon April 8 for the double ring ceremony uniting Oliver Jane Emmett and Dr. John J. Uecker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Uecker, of Dickinson, N.D.

PARENTS OF the bride are Mr. and Mrs. John Emmett, of 34159 Old Bedford. The Rev. George Ramsey performed the marriage ceremony in the presence of 100 guests. "Oh Perfect Love" was sung by John Durham, of Royal Oak.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was dressed in a skimmer gown of ivory veiled organza styled with a controlled skirt and empire bodice hand corded with alencon lace. A sheer train of organza fell from the shoulder creating a Watteau effect.

AN OPEN pill box trimmed with alencon held her floor-length silk illusion veil and she carried a cascade of tulips and tresha.

The honor attendant and bridesmaid were gowned alike in shocking pink crepe A-line dresses with pink chiton overdresses and matching headpieces. They carried cascades of tulips in the same shade of pink.

Michele Gedris, of Grand Rapids, was maid of honor. Mrs. J. Christopher Vandenberg, of Grand Rapids, was the bridesmaid.

KELLEY EMMETT served as her sister's junior bridesmaid wearing pink embroidered organza trimmed in shocking pink. Her flowers were the same as the other attendants on a smaller scale. Dr. Peter Condes, of Chicago, a friend of the groom's, best man. Ushers were Dr. J. Christopher Vandenberg and the bride's brother, Craig L. Emmett.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Emmett selected a pale pink sheer wool dress and jacket. The groom's mother chose a shocking pink silk and wool suit. Both had corages of camellias.

After a wedding luncheon at Northland Inn, the newlyweds left on a honeymoon trip to Mexico City and Acapulco. For traveling the bride wore a white wool dress with a champagne colored A-line coat.

The couple will make their home in Grand Rapids until June when Dr. Uecker will take up his residency in Chicago.

THE NEW Mrs. Uecker is a 1965 graduate of North Farmington High and studied nursing at Butterworth Hospital, Grand Rapids.

Her husband was graduated from the University of Minnesota and Northwestern University Medical School.
