

Earn a Wiglet By Having Fun

Every Sunday or Monday night at Wonderland Lanes, Plymouth Rd., in Livonia, the alleys are open for bowling from 8:30 p.m. Unbelievably, this is the time milady can earn a wiglet from Continental Wigs Livonia for herself simply by having fun. With the holiday season coming up, wiglets are more fashionable than ever. After a day of shopping or entertaining, you can don one which you have had styled in a party mood, and be off for a gala evening.

Every lady bowler is given a card, or her husband may obtain one in her name. After the card has been punched 10 times, the owner is entitled to a free wiglet from Continental Wigs.

A bonus is that the lady doesn't have to be present, or to bowl herself. Any member of the family or even one of her friends can do it. The only requirement is that the card has 10 punches.

"Husbands, this would be a way to get your wife a glamorous Christmas gift without even parting with a cent of your hard earned cash. Give your wife a prettier Christmas and have fun at the same time," say the fashion authorities.

The Distaff Side...

By Jerry Wendt, Women's Editor

Thursday, Oct. 27 was an important day for the Federation of Women's Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit. It held the 72nd anniversary of its reception for officers, and also it was one of the last scheduled events at the historic clubhouse on Second avenue, Detroit. Like everything else, progress is doing away with the old landmarks. The present house will soon be razed.

This lovely house is symbolic of a gracious area and of its giver. Few families have enjoyed the genuine respect that Detroiters have accorded the Alfred Dodge Wilson family.

They neither indulged in profligate extravagance nor excess for getting out of charitable obligations. Rather, they lived on the English theory "noblesse oblige" that those who are favored by fortune have an obligation to their fellow man. They were prominent in many charitable and civic endeavors. Mrs. Wilson still is. She hosted the fabulous Opening Night at Meadowbrook this year.

When Mrs. Delphine Dodge Ashbaugh became president, the house was donated to the Federation of Club Women.

A wave of nostalgia enveloped the Observer Thursday when the doors opened and all the symbols of the gracious days of the past came to meet us: The wine red carpeting and beautiful oak paneling symbolized of Meadowbrook Hall, were in evidence.

Colorful arrangements of fall flowers were everywhere, in the halls and on the tea table. Priceless antiques were disposed of throughout the rooms. "The White Room" so called because of its fireplace and white curtains and carpeting is used as a drawing room.

Mrs. Wilson, who despite her many civic endeavors, is a gay person, was present and enjoying the compliments of her friends on her recent birthday party.

We took a tour through the home. Mrs. Nathaniel Banks, president of the Federation, personally conducted us. The beautifully appointed office of the president with its own green and gold powder room door is on the second floor.

The Observer had a feeling of personal pride in seeing it, for Mrs. Banks is the Redford Society Columnist and a first-class writer.

Long ago, there were plays performed there and we saw the dressing rooms, still with the stars on them. There are reception rooms, board rooms, and libraries. We saw the auditorium which will be the scene of the International Ball on Nov. 12, a gala affair. Mrs. Banks is full of enthusiasm and plans for the future.

As we came down the stairs, we could see the rooms, filled with people and hear the strains of music from the grand piano at which Mrs. Thomas, wife of Dr. Thomas, was seated, entertaining the guests.

When this clubhouse is torn down, it will be more than a house that vanishes; it will be as Margaret Mitchell put it in her book, "a way of gracious living and elegance, which due to the tempo of modern times, has gone with the wind."
