United Church Women of Detroit will gather on Nov. 4 at Greater Christ Baptist Church, Iroquois and Mack, to celebrate World Communion Day. This is the annual observance when special emphasis is placed upon the responsibility of Protestants in the American church world to the rest of the world. The day's program will begin at ten o'clock with the monthly business meeting of United Church Women. Mrs. Josephine Kyles will present the worship service under the title "To Expand Our Gratitude," in keeping with the spirit of the day, and Mrs. Ernest Cabule will preside.

There will be a luncheon at noon, and all women are requested to obtain tickets from their denominational churches before Oct. 25. Those with small children are requested to indicate this so that adequate nursery facilities may be provided.

In the afternoon the program will carry out the theme of the day: "Lalies, Resources, Responsibilities," pointing up the work of the Department of Christian World Relations and deep concern with the problems facing the millions of people all over the world.
