Colorful Festival Dec. 2

Chariot races, mounted knights in armor, sword-wielding combatants, gladiators, flag-throwers, living puppets, graceful dancers and live chess—they're all part of the fabulous "Festa Italiana" coming to Detroit for a limited engagement Dec. 2.

The spectacular production will give five performances in three days at Olympia Stadium, with shows at 8 p.m. Friday, 2 and 8 p.m. Saturday, and 2 and 8 p.m. Sunday.

A cast of over 125 persons was gathered from the most colorful festivals and tournaments throughout Italy by director Gino Landi. The show is making its first tour of the United States, affording audiences a chance to see more spectacle than they've seen in most Hollywood epics.

Highlight of the rough-and-tumble action is the "Carosello of the Roses," in which six horsemen try to slash short-stemmed roses from each other's helmets with swords. And they go at it with gusto until someone wins.

Daring horsemanship dominates the show from the opening chariot race to the "Joust of the Saracens," a tournament that can end with a rider being lashed from his mount by a chain whip.

There's more. Like a life-size chess game with people and horses as pawns; and a recreation of the attack by Turkish horsemen on the Neapolitan Market.

"Tickets for 'Festa Italiana' are now on sale at Olympia. Mail orders are being accepted.

Players Open Season
The Court Players will open Nov. 9 with a revival of Jules Feiffer's "Harry the Rat with Women." Additional performances are scheduled Nov. 10, 11, 12, 16, 17, 18 and 19. The Court Players theatre is located at 2555 Burns Ave., Detroit. For ticket information, call 822-8655.

LEE MARVIN stands off Mexican guerrillas determined to get Claudia Cardinale while Burt Lancaster awaits the outcome in this scene from "The Professionals" now showing at the Mai Kai Theatre in Livonia. Also played in the adventure film are Robert Ryan, Jack Palance and Ralph Bellamy.

Junior Group Slates 1st

The Parkway Junior Players will be introduced to the public by a special Christmas production of Cinderella and Mother Goose on Dec. 19 at the Naskin Mills Elementary School, 8100 Hubbard Rd., Westland.

Two performances are scheduled. Mrs. Peter Yuhus is the director of the first production.
