"Mortals and Immortals"

To Fe Science Sermon Nov. 13

The Apostle Paul's declaration, "We are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you," is the Golden Text of this week's Christian Science Lesson, titled "Mortals and Immortals." The lesson will be read at all Christian Science services this Sunday.

Readings from the denominational textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include:

"The manifestation of God through mortals is as light passing through the window-pane. The light and the glass never mingle, but as matter, the glass is less opaque than the walls. The mortal mind through which Truth appears most vividly is that one which has lost most materially—has error—in order to become a better transparency for Truth. Then, like a cloud melting into thin vapor, it no longer hides the sun."

THESE ARE THE PLANS for the new building of the St. Timothy Presbyterian Church in Livonia.

Sinjen-Kazup Wed In Candlelight Ceremony

Elizabeth Jo Sinjen became the bride of Daniel Joseph Kazup on Saturday, Oct. 22, during a candlelight ceremony at Grace Lutheran Church, Pastor Victor F. and V. Frederick Halbo performed the double-ring rite.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Sinjen, of MacArthur Avenue, Redford Township; and the groom is the son of Mrs. Mary E. Kazup and the late Stephen Kazup of Westmoreland Road, Detroit.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of mauve and applied a cream-colored diamond lace on the empire bodice and controlled skirt. Over the dress, she and five-year-old Julie Ann Kazup, niece of the groom, who served as a bridesmaid in miniature. All were dressed alike in floor length gowns styled along empire lines with pale blue velvet sleeves and royal blue velvet bodices with elbow length flared sleeves. A floating panel attached at the back waistline extended to the floor. The attendants' headpieces were royal blue velvet Dior bows. Wrist length white gloves and pale blue shoes completed their ensembles, and they carried bouquets of pale pink carnations.

Richard C. Hare assisted the groom as best man. Ushers were John Baldwin, Bruce Currie, and Robert Larrimore.

Immediately following the ceremony, a dinner reception for 200 guests was held in the church Fellowship Hall.

Following the dinner, a champagne reception was held at the home of the bride.

The couple then left for a honeymoon trip which included a visit to Niagara Falls and a stop off at Norfolk, Virginia, to visit the bride's brother, Navy Marine repairman Arthur H. Sinjen Jr., who was married to Ann Margaret Harris on August 20. They will continue on to Florida, and upon their return will take up residence in Livonia.

Presbyterian Church Group Approves Plans for Building

Members of the Timothy Presbyterian Church have approved plans for their church building.

Construction of the first units (shown above) is scheduled to begin at the end of the year. It consists of a two-story sanctuary, six classrooms, and office space.

The building was designed by the architectural firm of Merritt, Cole and McKilliam, 425 E. Michigan, Detroit.

The Church will be located on Newburgh Road just south of Six Mile Rd. At present, the congregation conducts its services at 10 a.m. each Sunday in the Herbert Hoover Elementary School, 4 Levan Road at Ladywood.

Martin S. Hayden, Editor To Speak at Redford Church

Martin S. Hayden, Editor of The Detroit News, will be the guest speaker at the Redford Baptist Church, Sunday, Nov. 13, at 6 p.m.

In addition to the position of editor with a varied background in journalism, including sports, political reporting, Washington correspondent, foreign correspondent, and associate editor. In addition to his important position in journalism, Mr. Hayden gives leadership to a number of cultural and educational organizations in the Metropolitan Detroit area.

Following the Sunday evening lecture by Mr. Hayden, there will be an informal question and answer session to which the public is invited.

At the Sunday morning worship services at 9:00 and 11:15 a.m. the pastor, Dr. Gordon H. Schroeder, will speak on the subject, "The Church's Savior." The Redford Baptist Church is located at Grand River and Seven Mile Road.

MARTIN S. HAYDEN

was a floor length coat of mauve, fashioned with an Allie skirt and sweeping chapel train. The long sleeves of the coat ended with classic points over the wrists. A lace and pearl embroidered pill-box secured the bride's bouffant shoulder length veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of roses and daisies, her favorite flowers.

Carol Adams attended her cousin as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Peggy Shindler and Linda Hohn.

Memorial Fund Begun for Jeanette Finkelstein

A Memorial Fund has been formally set up in the name of Mrs. Jeanette Finkelstein, who died last week.

Stanley is a past president of the Congregation and a member of their Religious Committee. Jeanette was a very active member of the L. J. C. Sisterhood. She possessed a lively singing voice and held great interest in their dramatic skills. She served for several years, until they moved, as a substitute teacher for the L. J. C. Sunday School as well as the Livonia Public School.

This fund in Jeanette's name will be used to purchase a symbolic item much needed for the Synagogue. Donations may be sent to the Livonia Jewish Congregation, in care of the Jeanette Finkelstein Memorial Fund, 29475 W. Six Mile Rd.

Three Livonia Couples Celebrate 25th Anniversary

October 18 was a day long remembered by relatives, friends and neighbors of three Greenview Pointe Livonia couples. They are Mr. and Mrs. Mario DeCapite, Mr. and Mrs. Mario DeCapite, and Mr. and Mrs. Mario DeCapite.

Mr. and Mrs. Mario DeCapite were honored at a surprise party, given by their many friends and neighbors. Both Mario's and Stella's parents came from Cleveland to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Soucie were pleasantly surprised with a party on Oct. 22. It was attended by 90 people. Several relatives drove from Illinois to attend.
