

MR. AND MRS. FRED G. LAPHAM

70 Years for Laphams

Mr. and Mrs. Fred G. Lapham celebrated 70 years of married life recently. The day fell on Mrs. Lapham's birthday and she was 93 years old. They celebrated at a family party at the home of one of their granddaughters in Highland.

This remarkable couple met on a hayride and their romance culminated shortly in marriage in Springfield, a small area which is now part of Dearborn.

Lapham, 93, retired in 1940 from the Ford Motor Co. where he was a metal patternmaker. Since then he has kept busy gardening and growing all kinds of vegetables and flowers.

They raised five children, four sons and one daughter: Walter Lapham, Dr. Stewart Lapham (deceased), Dr. Fred Lapham, and Evelyn Monnier with whom they live at 19165 Glenmore, Redford Township.

Their union was blessed with 17 grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

The Laphams are in good health and enjoy life and are looking forward to more happy years.
