Livonia Couple Wed 25 Years
Mr. and Mrs. David Aldea, of 14891 Cavell, residents of Livonia since 1948, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a fireside dinner held in the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association Hall.
The dinner was a happy tribute from the couple's three daughters, Judy, a junior at Andrews University, Susan and Chris, both students at Bentley High School. Mrs. Aldea was appropriately dressed in silver and a corsage of off-white roses complemented her outfit.
The guest list of 60, included sisters and brothers-in-law of Mrs. Aldea and living in Tujunga, California, their families. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Jergovich, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McGrath, all of Detroit, and George and Michael Gombos of Dearborn Heights.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam Aldea, Sr., of Norville, also joined the festivities honoring his youngest son. Mr. Aldea's brothers, John and Sam, and a sister, Annie, were also present with their respective spouses and children.
After cake cutting ceremony, the couple was showered with gifts, some from as far as California. Sending greetings were Mrs. Aldea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Flore, recent residents of the Livonia address, now residing in Tujunga, California, and two sisters, Mrs. James Brawdy and Mrs. Georgina Galloway, also of Tujunga.

Carolyn Mazzoni and Allen Bishop Wed With Papal Blessing
A Papal Blessing was bestowed on Carolyn Mazzoni and Allen D. Bishop, recently when the couple exchanged vows in St. Stephen Catholic Church (Byzantine Rite), Allen Park.
Father Emil Masich celebrated the Nuptial Mass, before an altar decorated with white Gladioli, Chrysanthemums and Ferns. Responses were sung by the choir—"O Beautiful Mother" was sung by the soloist, Mrs. Marje Sileck.
Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Orin Mazzoni, of Garden City. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bishop, of Lincoln Park.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a floor length gown of Peau-de-seine, highlighted by Alencon lace accented with crystal drops surrounded by loops of seed pearls.
The former Miss Mazzoni's tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion was secured by lace petals embellished with silk flowers and pearl and crystal blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses, orchids and lily of the valley and ivy.
As her sister's maid of honor, Joyce Mazzoni, wore a floor length gown styled with a scooped neckline and elbow length sleeves.
Attired in similar ensembles designed with sand colored skirts were bridesmaids, Thelma Evans of Dearborn, cousin of the bride, Dorothy Rejda of W. Virginia, also a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Dean Anderson of Plymouth, Mrs. Larry Savage of Garden City, and Mrs. Arduino Imagni of Dearborn Heights.
Junior bridesmaids were Theresa Pavlich of Dearborn, cousin of the bride, and Debbie Baker of Southgate, cousin of the groom who carried nosegays of orange chrysanthemums and foliage.
Serving as flower girl was the bride's god-child Lisa Canestrano of Minerva, Ohio. Lisa's dress was of iridescent orange taffeta with avocado green sash. She carried a straw basket of orange chrysanthemums.
Nicky Pavlich of Dearborn, cousin of the bride, carried the rings on a white satin pillow.
George Barber of Lincoln Park assisted as best man. Ushers were Michael Mazzoni, youngest brother of the bride; David Beckner of Avella, Penn., cousin of the bride; William Bousamra and Tyler Cathey of Lincoln Park, and Larry Savage of Garden City who wore formal attire for the wedding.
For the Church ceremony the bride's mother, Mrs. Orin Mazzoni, chose a simple but two piece ribbon lace of silver beige with avocado accessories and a yellow orchid. Mrs. Arthur Bishop, the groom's mother, chose a two piece green and ivory brocade with ivory accessories.
