ty, he can."

Waldron did not run for reelection as Chairman because he wants to devote full it time to responsibilities as Republican Leader in the Michigan House of Represenand division chairman at the University of Michigan Dearborn Center. He is widely known as a former news analyst and director of news and public affairs at WJBK-TV in Detroit and a state observant Michigan House of Representatives.

Sladed stepped up to the County Chairmanship from the postion of 19th District Chairman in Wayne County, to which post he was elected early in 1980. During his tenure, the vote in Livonis and Redford switched from Democratic to Republican.

As County Chairman, Sladek will coordinate cambaigns, 'eganitation, patronyrk and director of news and public affairs at WJBK-Ty in Detroit and as state chairman for Romney Volunteers in 1962 and 1964, and as a loon suitant to Governor Romney Tartice and the state of the Republicant vote an important 12 per cent. The day after election, Stedek unveiled a three-fold plan for winning in Wayne County in 1868:

1—Service metropolitan neighborhoods by:

Expanding the existing program of local headquarters as service centers— Raising precinct delequarters as service confers.

Raising 'precinct deligates' status by keeping them informed and helping them service consitiueasily problems.

E-Keeping 'precinct deligates active the y $ax around and giving them more say in party affairs.
