 Broadway may have its Fier-Martin, Rodgers-Hammerstein, producer-director teams, but the Livonia Public school system has an equally competent facsimile in the Ernst-Hivrela duo.

"Little Mary Sunshine" is the fourth musical comedy presentation created, conceived and refurbished by Musical Director Roy Ernst and Director Dave Hivrela. Starring with "Music Man," the initial smash hit, the flow of adroitly conceived and presented musical comedies has been constant and unceasing, and effort that Messrs. Hivrela and Ernst extract from their high school thespians is nothing short of miraculous.

By now, of course, we have come to expect a polished, almost flawless production from their guidance. "Little Mary Sunshine" was no exception. Three capacity audiences gave the versatile performers and precise orchestration a standing ovation, and endless curtain falls, a hearty response throughout the evening.

The only regret is that we can't run the winter musical presentation as long as the summer productions (six performances). All this brilliant work by so many people deserves a longer run and wider recognition.
