The hero?

Well. If you consider just the player who made the final two points, it was Fritz Simon who dropped in a pair of chartlies with 20 seconds left after Portiac Northern had gone shead, $2.31, on a basket by Bob. Traylor with 35 seconds on the clock.

'After Simons coolly and calmly delivered his vital pair of shots, Northern still had plenty of time.

But Farmington rushed its rival into some hurried tries and finally what seemed like a night and a day of time ran out and the elated Farmington players jumped with merriment.

In Pontiac Northern, the went shead, 14-8, after one quarter, but its jased stood at only 28-24 at halfiffur, in the third period, Farmington rushes ahead by 40-34 thanks to a 16-8 spurt in which Greg Doyou tallied seven points. But back stormed Northern and it looked for a few seconds that the Pontiac team's rally would win until Simons connected with all the pressure on him. Dorow topped he winners' attack with seven backets and four free throws for 18 points. Nex came Mike Ames with South South Control of the Paramignon eause.
