Bible College Advances Local Men

Robert F. Ramey of Redford Township and Chester L. Halstead of Livonia are filling new posts at Detroit Bible College as the result of a major realignment of administrative personnel.

Ramey, will succeed Dr. William A. DeVier as registrar. Dr. DeVier moving up to the office of vice president. Ramey, associate professor in Bible and theology, will continue in his present duties as director of admission.

Halstead, who has served as director of Christian service since 1965, takes over as acting dean of students. He is an instructor in languages and science.

The appointments were announced by Dr. M. A. Patterson, chairman of the board.

Ramey, 18863 Delaware, Redford Township, is a graduate of the Philadelphia Museum College of Art, and Dallas Theological Seminary. He has filled pastoral ministries in Philadelphia, Chicago, and Dallas. Ramey is a member of the American Scientific Affiliation and the Evangelical Theological Society.

Chester L. Halstead, 30679 Grandon, Livonia is a graduate of Tennessee Temple College, Chattanooga, where he majored in psychology. He later earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling at Michigan State University. He has also studied at Wayne State University and Eastern Michigan University. Before joining DBC as an instructor in counseling and guidance, Mr. Halstead was pastor of Clarenceville Baptist Church, Farmington and was formerly on the staff of the Christian Counseling Clinic in Detroit.

Gala Fantasyland at UD High School

Fantasyland will be the destination Saturday evening, Jan. 28, of many couples in this area and their University of Detroit High School sons. The occasion is the U. of D. High annual Gala Night, and Fantasyland is, of course, located at the school on South Cambridge in Detroit.

The prosaic school gymnasium will be transformed by members of the U. of D. Mothers Club into a fairyland for the young and young of heart. Funds raised by the project will be used for more school equipment.

Plans call for a reception committee of Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs to greet the guests. Also to be on hand will be Alice and her Wonderland friends and Cinderella with her glass slipper, with Dumbo the flying elephant overhead.

The Mothers Club said there will be dancing for the parents in the gym—around the Sleeping Beauty castle and to the strains of Dave Farley's orchestra, while the students and their dates crowd Fantasyland in the library and hear the beat of the Monocles, a local combo.

Refreshments will be served for the student crowd in the cafeteria, presided over by Peter Pan, Captain Hook and the Crocodile and for the parents in the lounge turned into a Swiss village.

Student tickets are $2 a couple and the parents can attend for $5 a couple.

Among the area residents planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. John Evangelista and Mrs. Richard Bernards, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Mainhofers, Mr. and Mrs. Donaid Tenbrunsel, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Yori, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Galpas, all of Redford Township; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chambers and Mr. and Mrs. George Marston of Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Syniszewski of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Popadine of Garden City.

Mrs. Richard O'Hara, chairman, said funds raised would be used this year to double the size of the athletic field house and to equip the teachers' professional centers in the library.

In the past the Mothers Club, now in its 35th year, has raised funds for more land for the school, a public address system, an organ, station wagons and a silver service purchased last year.

FOUR VISITORS to the University of Detroit High School Gala Night Fantasyland on Saturday evening, Jan. 28, are Ernest Yori of Redford Township and her son Arthur, and Mrs. Arthur Syniszewski and her son Arthur. Mrs. Syniszewski is on the right. They are Mrs. Frank Chambers of Livonia, Mrs.

MRS. JAMES McFALL

JoAnn Poppenger Wed to James McFall Dec. 30

Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church was the setting for the marriage of JoAnn Poppenger and James McFall Dec. 30.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Poppenger and Mrs. Joseph McFall, both of Livonia. After the candlelight ceremony a dinner reception was held at the Mayflower Meeting House in Plymouth.

The bride wore an Italian silk velvet, floor-length gown fashioned with an empire waist and chapel train. The neckline and headpiece were encircled with white mink. White carnations, holly and an heirloom handkerchief, which belonged to the bride's great-grandmother made up her bouquet.

Maid of honor was Donna Leech and Harlene Healy of Chicago. Jean Davis and Georgeanne McFall, sister of the bridegroom, were the bridesmaids. They wore gowns of emerald green tulle.

Zecks Mark 25th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Bad Zeck, of 20180 Milburn, Livonia, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary with a family gathering Jan. 10.

On hand were son Robert and his wife, Sandra, of Livonia, and the Zecks' nieces, Christopher Robert, along with sons Anthony and Jon and daughters JoAnne and Linda.

The couple's oldest son, Richard, planned to visit later with his wife, Judith, and daughter Beth. They are living at Milan, Mich., while Richard attends the University of Michigan graduate school.

Zeck's sister, Mrs. Mary Thoen of Grapese Pointe, sent red roses in remembrance of her role as maid of honor at the wedding 25 years ago.

On New Year's Eve, the couple entertained friends at the Farmington Loyal Order of Moose Lodge. Mrs. Zeck is chaplain for Chapter 765M W.O.T.M.

Madonna Parents To Sponsor Dance

The Madonna College Club will sponsor a "Cupid's Prance" dinner-dance Feb. 4 in its college student center. Festivities will begin at 6 p.m. with cocktails in the Commons. Dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. in the dining hall. The Royal Aristocrats Orchestra will provide music for dinner and dancing.

Purpose of the affair is to raise funds for the building projects at Madonna and to provide scholarships for students.

Reservations may be made by calling FO 6-7607, VE 7-0682 or 731-1706. Tickets are $12 a couple, or $6 per person.
