Zornow-Bellmore Marriage Rites Performed in Plymouth Jan. 6

Camille Marie Bellmore became the bride of Carl W. Zornow in a double ring ceremony Jan. 6 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church in Plymouth.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Bellmore of McClumpha Road, Plymouth, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Zornow of Beck Road in Plymouth.

Officiating at the ceremony was the Rev. J. Robert Schaden.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length sheath gown of peau de sole with reembodyered alençon lace and seed pearls trimming the bodice and hemline.

A detachable train was fastened at the waist, and her shoulder-length veil fell from a cluster of tiny silk rosebuds with lace and pearls. Her bouquet was white roses.

Sheath gowns of apple-green crepe with matching lace trim were the choice of the bridal attendants, maid of honor Janine Oldfield of

MRS. CARL W. ZORNOW

Detroit, cousin of the bride, and a bridesmaid Marilyn Boutin of Merrill, Mich. Virginia Cooley of Fenton and Sherry Houde of Auburn, N.Y.

Junior bridesmaid Susan Bellmore, sister of the bride, wore a gown like the other attendants, and Mary Lou Bellmore, another sister, had a dress of apple green velvet.

All carried red roses with dark green leaves.

Cy Valliere of Merrill was best man and the ushers included Tom Abraham, Ken Ward, Terry Clark and Chris Bellmore, brother of the bride, all of Plymouth.

Mrs. Bellmore's dress was pale ice green silk wool, and Mrs. Zornow chose ivory silk wool.

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 125 guests at a Plymouth restaurant.

The new Mrs. Zornow is a junior at Eastern Michigan University and her husband is a senior at Michigan State University.

Vows Taken In Livonia Unite Pair

Kathleen Louise Ficker and John Carroll Wasserman were married on Jan. 28 at St. Maurice Church, Livonia.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Ficker of Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Carroll F. Wasserman of Parkside Boulevard, Toledo.

The bride wore a gown of ivory elegant peau de soie with a scoop neckline and long sleeves. Alençon lace detailed the sleeves and the empire waistline and made a border lining the front of the A-line skirt. The softly gathered back fell into a full flowing cathedral train.

A wreath of orange blossoms held her floor length veil.

Connie Sue Nowakowski, a cousin of the bride, was maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were Janet Wasserman, Judy Wasserman and Joan Wasserman, sisters of the bridegroom and Mary Ann Slaven.

All wore floor-length gowns with red velvet bodices and quilted A-line skirts of beige crepe.

James Wasserman was best man for his brother, and ushers were two other brothers, Joseph and Frank Wasserman, and Donald Van-Volkenburgh.

The flower girl was Valerie Nowakowski and the ring bearer was Adam Nowakowski. The bride wore a pink lace gown with matching coat and Mrs. Wasserman a pale gold gown with a matching jacket.

The bride is a graduate of Mt. St. Joseph College in Cincinnati and teaches at Gesu School in Toledo. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Ohio State Law School and practices law with the firm of Wasserman & Wasserman in Toledo.

The couple will reside in Perryburg after a trip to Puerto Rico.
