

Association For Retarded To Hear Talk

A new concept in residential care for retarded children will be described Tuesday night in Redford Township by Mrs. Torrance Etheridge, member of the board of the National Association for Retarded Children.

She will speak at 8 p.m. at Lola Valley Junior High School, detailing the work she is doing on a comprehensive study of the service needed for retarded children and their families.

The meeting is sponsored by the Redford Association for Retarded Children which has announced it will form a combined association with Livonia, Garden City, Plymouth and Northville to provide a more effective organization.

Mrs. Wilfred Austin of Redford Township, publicity chairman, said the meeting is open to the public.

Farmington To Pick Up John Merlo

Farmington Township Chief of Police Irving H. Yakes said Monday that the District Attorney in Philadelphia has approved the release of John Merlo to the Farmington Township Police.

Merlo 25, was captured in Philadelphia Jan. 20, after the police issued a warrant. He is alleged to have killed his 18-year-old wife, Sharon, on Jan. 8 while she was at work in Farmington Township.

Yakes said the Department hoped to return Merlo to Michigan this week.
