The week to come is the time for selling and delivering several tons of Girl Scout cookies in this area.

To say nothing of eating them.

It will be a busy time for the green-uniformed girls—and their mothers and troop leaders—in Plymouth and Westland, where order-taking is just beginning, in Livonia, Redford Township and Garden City, where stacks of cookies will be sold in store booths, and in Farmington, where thousands of boxes are soon to be delivered.

In all areas, part of the cookie money is used by the individual troop, and part goes for Girl Scout camps.

It's the 41st annual cookie sale for the metropolitan Detroit area, which includes Livonia, Garden City and Redford Township.

In this area door-to-door cookie sales are not permitted, and the scouts will be selling their delicious product in some 650 "booths" located in stores and shopping areas.

Mrs. Ronald Hankinson, of Livonia, is in charge of arranging for the booths throughout the metropolitan area.

Mrs. J. K. Heuer, Metropolitan Detroit Council 111 cookie sale chairman, said the sale is expected to surpass the record one million and twenty-two thousand boxes sold in 1966.

"In addition to supplying funds for the troop program," stated Mrs. Heuer, "cookie sale money is helping pay for the development of a third camp site, purchased three years ago. With the completion of winterized buildings, tent units, roads and other facilities, we will be able to increase the year-round camping opportunities for over 34,000 Girl Scouts in the Metropolitan Detroit Council."

By now over 270 tons of Girl Scout cookies have been delivered by 24 trailer trucks to 200 "cookie stations" located throughout the Detroit area. Parents of Girl Scouts will pick-up their supply of cookies from one of the designated cookie stations in time for the opening day of the sale on Friday.

Over 1,700 women are involved in organizing the Girl Scout cookie sale. They include:

Livonia — Mrs. Howard

Brown; Mrs. Albert Kennan, 32164 Dover; Mrs. James McMichael, 8430 Rae Drive.

Redford Township — Mrs. John Roggenbeck, 9290 Centralia; Mrs. John Gibbens, 11224 Farley; Mrs. George Nampa, 12890 Hemingway; Mrs. Joseph Lubig, 14163 San Jose; Mrs. Anthony Stipcak, 26900 Vassar; Mrs. Charles McSorley, 18297 Denby; Mrs. Dominic Mondl, 18876 Leona.

In Farmington, where the Girl Scout organization is part of the South Oakland Council, girls took orders a few weeks ago and will be delivering cookies this week and next.

They'll deliver to homes a total of 37,140 boxes of cookies.

That's more than 6,000 boxes ahead of last year, said Farmington Cookie Chairman Mrs. John Soudy, despite the fact that order-taking began the day of the winter's worst snowfall.

Working with Mrs. Soudy at area cookie chairmen are Mrs. Kennard Cummings, 34009 State Street; Mrs. Ron Milne, 31837 N. Marklawn; Mrs. Emily Bowlick, 26203 Westmeath, and Mrs. Diane Alexander, 24121 Ripplecreek, Novi.

The Plymouth and Westland Girl Scouts are part of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council, and in that area orders for cookies are taken later, starting about now.

Proceeds there are going to build the area a new camp at Linden, Mich.

Cookie chairmen in the Huron Valley organization include Mrs. Frank Nair, 1432 W. Ann Arbor Trail, for Plymouth, and Mrs. Roy Gibson, 1129 Judith, Wayne, for Westland.
