Engineering: news, views, student guidance by Fred W. Bradley, P.E.

Last week we explored the basic criteria for choosing one's vocation or profession. Rouge Valley (local chapter of the Michigan Engineers) has had many discussions with students, notably at Schoolcraft College. Three types of questions bother them: (1) questions about ac-

Faith and begorrah—Judging an Irish contest with 20 lovely contestants needed the wisdom of Solomon. With nary a bit of the Emerald Isle in our ancestry, I did the next best thing—wore a green suit, held shamrocks for luck, conjured up every leprechaun I knew and then joined two fellow judges Saturday for the choosing of Miss Livonia of 1967.

The winner's picture can be seen elsewhere in the paper today. Just happen to have the recipe for Irish coffee: black coffee slowly poured over a dram of Irish whiskey and topped with a bit of thick cream. Whoopee!

If you feel you have the luck of the Irish, try it out at the Rosedale Garden's Card Party St. Pat's mile, 8:30 p.m. at the Club House on Hubbard. For information call (I kid you not) Bonnie Green at 425-5842.

Tim and Jean Lemon are back from trip to Calif. While vacationing took their kids Mike, Pat and Lori to Disneyland. As Tim says, "It's really fabulous and lives up to it's name."

Spring Fashion Fair held recently by the St. Aiden (Six Mi. area) Altar Soc. was an elegant success. Joan Brozo, chairman of the event

Ladywood Lore Drama Club Presents Lent Passion Play

By Janet Lawrence '68
Ladywood's Drama and Choral clubs will make a joint presentation of the passion play "The Upper Room" for the season of Lent.

Sister M. Janine, Drama club moderator and advisor, cost the roles for the play. The Choral club, under the direction of Sister M. Huberta, will sing appropriate selections in the story of Christ's passion such as Hallelujah Chorus, and Noble Crane's "The Holy City."

Senior, Marcy Niznik, is choreographer for the production. She feels that "The Upper Room" is the enactment of "The City of God" through dance will not only prove exciting for the performers, but also to the audience.

The performances are scheduled for March 16-20. Matinees will be on both Saturday and Sunday, March 18 and 19 at 2:30 p.m. Evening curtain times will be at 7:30 p.m.

"The Drama of Motherhood" was the theme of Mrs. John Shada's inspirational talk at the annual Mother-Daughter Communion Breakfast on Sunday.

The girls and their mothers attended Mass offered by Reverend K. Cronin at the Felician Sister's Motherhouse Chapel.

After Mass, a tasty breakfast of scrambled eggs, sausage, sweet rolls coffee and juice was served in Ladywood's gym.

Although the affair was for mothers and daughters, many wonderful dads could be seen scurrying around in aprons serving the delectable breakfast.

Submarine Shop Open In Plaza

Daniel T. McPhail, a 1963 graduate of Farmington High has opened a submarine sandwich shop in the Farmington Plaza, 31626 Grand River.

He is celebrating his Grand Opening this week with a special coupon, located elsewhere in this paper.

Dan has been a resident of Farmington for the past 12 years, residing at 22905 Mayfield, City of Farmington. He was previously employed by Marathon Oil Company. He is now serving in the Michigan Air National Guard.

Dan was inspired on his trips thru the eastern states where Submarine sandwich shops are very prevalent. He felt that such a good wholesome sandwich should be introduced to this part of the country. His motto is ONLY THE FINEST QUALITY MEATS ARE PERMITTED IN OUR SUBMARINES.
