Contemporary Passion Play Set at Presbyterian Church

"Casey," a passion play of everyday lives written by P. W. Turner, will be presented at the Village United Presbyterian Church at 8 p.m. Good Friday.

The Chancel Players, directed by Philip Matura and representing some 20 Pontiac area churches, will put on the drama. The church is located at 25350 W. Six Mile Road, and the public is invited.

The religious drama is described as one that takes place on a "green hill" in the middle of everyday lives, both here and now and in Jerusalem on the first Good Friday.

Stevenson Choir Sings For Tre-Ore

Stevenson High School's choir will sing at the Good Friday service at St. Matthew's Church, 30900 Six Mile Road. The service will begin at 1 p.m. and end by 2:30 p.m.

Mr. Lowell Everson, director of the choir, has selected the following to be sung as part of the service: "Miserere Mei" (Grant Us Thy Mercy), "Easter Eggs," "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," and "Since By Man's Hand He Died."

The public is invited to the service to enjoy the inspiration of hearing sacred music performed by Livonia's newest high school choir.

JANE O. ROBBINS

'Identity Crisis' to be Topic of Talk

A Christian Science lecturer coming to Livonia Friday, March 24, will discuss today's "identity crisis" and how a deepened understanding of man's relationship to God can help.

The speaker will be Jane O. Robbins, C.S., of Boulder, Colo. Her visit here is being sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Wayne, with the cooperation of other Christian Scientist churches in Wayne County.

The lecture, at 1 p.m. in the Mai Kai Theater, at Plymouth and Farmington Roads, is titled, "Freedom to Be Yourself."

Admission is free and the lecture is open to the public. Miss Robbins is a native of Ontario, Canada. During World War II, she was a service pilot with the Army Air Force. After the war, she spent some time in Alaska and flew as a bush-pilot in the Nome-Point Barrow area. Later, she became a representative for an aircraft corporation in Illinois.

In 1955, she moved to Colorado and began devoting her full time to the public practice of Christian Science healing. She is now on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

WSU Harpist Will Play at Clarenceville

Susan Mazur, harpist from Wayne State University, will assist the chancel choir in both services: Easter Sunday morning at the Clarenceville Methodist Church.

Miss Mazur will play with the choir in the anthem, "Christ, Our Passover," by Will C. MacFarlane, and will join Mrs. Paul Arsenman, organist, in the service prelude.

The guest musician has won honors as a student both at Cass Technical High School and in the WSU music department.

On Maundy Thursday evening, the Rev. James A. Crawford will conduct the Service of Tenebrae, a candlelight Communion Service, at 7:30 and 9:30.

Easter services will be held at 8, 9:30, and 11 a.m.
