Newton-Page Vows Spoken In Redford

A doubling ceremony at Grace Lutheran Church, Redford Township, united Carol Lee Page and Sam Curtis Newton in marriage April 1.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll M. Page, of Livonia, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Newton, of Hurst, Ill.

The vows were heard by Pastor Victor F. Halboth Sr. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-skirted white satin gown with a short train.

Ruthann Waack of Honolulu, Hawaii, wore a floor-length empire gown in powder blue lace and crepe for her duties as maid of honor.

The new Mrs. Newton, a graduate of Clarksville High School, has been working for a year in Honolulu.

Beverly Lisiecki, John Dew Married in April 14 Rites

Beverly Ann Lisiecki became the bride of John K. Dew in an evening ceremony at St. Anne's Church, Warren, on Friday, April 14.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lisiecki of Warren, and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dew, of Doherty Drive, Farmington.

A reception at the Polish Century Club on East Court Drive followed the ceremony.

White peal de goe and alencon lace fashioned the bridal gown. The lace bodice has three-quarter sleeves, and the A-line skirt featured lace applique and fell into a long train.

The bride attendants wore A-line dresses of light avocado green and carried pale pink gardenias.

Mrs. Rosemary Danerlon, of Warren, was matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Barbara Golinske, Royal Oak; Mary Carol Dew, Farmington; Linda Jacks, Detroit, and Linda Munro, Clarkston.

Thomas Dew, of Farmington, was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were Joseph Taschler, Dearborn; Dennis Lisiecki, Warren; Jerry Dameron, Warren and Raymond Unks, Detroit.

The bride's mother wore a dress of pink Venetian lace and prepe, and Mrs. Dew's ensemble was aqua silk shantung.

The couple planned a week's honeymoon in Puerto Rico and will live in Southfield.

The bride is a teacher at Grosse Pointe High School.
