

Mission Doctor Will Address Church Group

Dr. Bethel Fleming, Methodist medical missionary currently on a year's furlough from duties in Nepal, will tell some of her experiences at the May 10 meeting of the Women's Society of Plymouth Methodist Church.

Dr. Fleming and her husband, staying this year in Albion, have served with the United Methodist Mission in Kathmandu, Nepal.

The Flemings were the first missionaries allowed into the country of Nepal, in 1944.

Five mission-supported maternal and child health centers have been established and Dr. Fleming's husband, who is superintendent of the United Methodist Mission, provides much needed surgical services.

Dr. Fleming is a native of Elizabethtown, Pa., a graduate of Lambertville High School, Lambertville, N. J., graduated from Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa., with an A. B. Degree, and from Woman's Medical College of Pennsylvania.

Luncheon will be served at 12:15 p.m. by Mary Clark, and the Executive Board will meet at 10:30 a.m.

Nativity Dinner Offers Special Entertainment

The second annual Mother-daughter banquet of the Nativity United Church of Christ, Livonia, will be held May 18, at 8:30 p.m. at the church, sponsored by the Women's Fellowship.

Each of the fellowship circles is participating in the planning. The Rebecca Circle, with Helen Folk as chairman, is in charge of the program.

The Rhaphody of the Arts will be chosen by Rosalind Heitzman, who has also presented the program professionally in both the Chicago and New York City areas for the past 15 years. She is an artist who illustrates classical music by drawing large colored chalk illustrations with both hands in time with music.

The dinner will be cooked by Robert Diering, whose hobby is being chef for large groups.

The Nativity United Church of Christ is located at 9415 Henry Road, Livonia. The two Sunday services will be held at 9:30 a.m. (in conjunction with church school), and 11 a.m. The Rev. Edward Reinhardt is the new pastor.

Viet Panel Discussion Set By Temple

A "Vietnam - Are There Alternatives?" is the subject of a panel discussion at a town hall meeting to be conducted by Birmingham Temple Wednesday, May 10, at 8:30 p.m. at the Robert Ford Junior High School, Oak Park.

Views of labor, religion, and the academic community will be represented on the panel, and Rabbi Shewin T. Wine will moderate.

Participants will be Emil Mayne, secretary-treasurer of the United Auto Workers; Dr. Otto Feinstein, associate professor of international relations in Monmouth college of Wayne State University; and Ralph Kerman, program secretary of the American Friends Service Committee.

Rabbi Wine will discuss "The New Morality" at Birmingham Temple's regular Sabbath service Friday, May 5, at the junior high.

'Creative Dissent' Round Table Topic

The Rev. Robert E. Willoughby, pastor of the Mount Olivet Methodist Church, Dearborn, will be the principal speaker at the season's final meeting of the Women's Division of the Detroit Round Table to be held at 1 p.m. Wednesday, May 10, at Temple Israel.

"Creative Dissent" will be his topic. A social hour and refreshments will be enjoyed prior to the program.

The Rev. Willoughby has been called "the minister who moves from the pulpit to the picket line." He has been a leader in his church for civil rights and took an active part in the Southern protest.

FASHIONS FROM HOOPS TO MINIS will come front and center at a style show to be staged at St. Matthew Methodist Church, Livonia, at 7:30 Friday, May 12. The church women have collected dresses, wedding gowns and children's clothes from many periods in American history for the show.

Gospel Singer Will Perform at Calvary

J. Stratton Shufelt, internationally-known gospel singer and soloist, will appear Sunday, May 7, at Calvary Baptist Church, 43065 Joy Road, Plymouth.

He will sing at all the morning services and present a concert of sacred songs at 4:30 p.m.

A graduate of Wheaton College, he also studied at Sherwood School of Music and at the University of Illinois Music School.

Shufelt served as assistant to the late Dr. A. W. Toner of Chicago's South Side Alliance Church for a number of years; and was associated with the late Dr. H. A. Ironside for nine years as minister of music and youth director at Moody Memorial Church.

He has made several trips abroad. These include the Moody Centenary meetings held throughout the British Isles with Dr. Ironside; the rallies to establish Youth for Christ in Europe with Torrey Johnson and Billy Graham; campaigns throughout the major cities of Europe with Spencer DeYoung.

Augsburg Secret Pals Hold Meet

Mary Lou Rupp and Esther Engel were named to lead the Augsburg Lutheran Church Secret Pal group for the next 18 months when the group held its annual banquet recently. Secret Pal names and gifts were exchanged, and the group decided to change its banquet month from April to October.

Doug Fisher, and Jordan; and a fourth trip across Scotland and Wales again with Dr. Johnson.

New Plan to Aid Lutheran High Schools Announced

Lutherans in this area and throughout metropolitan Detroit are being asked to aid their church's high schools in a new way.

The campaign by the Lutheran High School Association of Greater Detroit is for one dollar a month—or more if possible—for maintenance of facilities for Lutheran and Lutheran East.

First aim will be an auditorium-gymnasium addition for each school so that they can qualify for accreditation by the North Central Association.

With 1,350 students now enrolled and many more wanting to enter the two Lutheran High Schools an expansion program has become vital.

Delegates have been appointed from each of the 62 congregations that belong to the association and other congregations will be approached to appoint delegates. These people who have been appointed will be responsible for seeing that every member of their congregation is given an opportunity to join the "Dollar-A-Month Club."

The students from the two high schools will also work on the campaign.

John Korff and Larry Harabadian are co-chairmen for the program.

Dr. John Choltz, superintendent, announced that as soon as pledges totaling $15,000 per month are in, the association will hire the architect for the additions.

The program will be a continuous one over the years to help meet the ever-demanding needs for expansion of the schools.

Rid Kitchen Boredom To keep your cooking from becoming boring, prepare at least one new dish each week. It will make your work far more enjoyable and you will receive praise from the members of your family.
