

THE LOCAL NEWS

AND OTHER ITEMS

HERE AND THERE

Mrs. G. F. Chamberlin has returned home from Lansing.

Miss Ida Steele is home from Detroit to spend her vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Ward spent Xmas with Fred Stoney and wife.

Miss Electa Chilson visited her mother and brother in Plymouth Monday.

Mrs. T. H. McGee went to Saginaw Wednesday to visit relatives.

Edward Giger of Detroit is visiting his uncle at the Methodist parsonage.

R. W. Brown and daughter, Francis, spent Xmas with relatives in Detroit.

Lottie Canfield of Detroit is the guest of Mrs. Elizabeth Botsford of Clarenceville.

Miss Mary Lee is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lester in Pontiac for a few days.

H. C. Bartlett, wife and son, Floyd, are spending the holidays at Simcoe, Can.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Otis and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Spaller.

Mrs. George Smith of Grand Ledge is spending some time with Mrs. A. J. Wixom.

Miss Mabel Kennedy is spending her vacation in Delta, O., the guest of Charles Pray.

Mrs. C. J. Sprague and Miss Electa Chilson spent Xmas with Ross Northrop and wife.

L. N. Howard, wife and daughter, Luella, are spending the holidays in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. David Ross and Mrs. Bert Roche were Detroit and Windsor visitors last week Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harger of Detroit have been spending a few days with Mrs. G. F. Chamberlin.

Mrs. Nina Whipple and daughter, Helen, spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Harger in Northville.

Frank Steele and wife have been spending a few days at the home of the latter's sister, Mrs. A. L. Brannock, in Byron.

Wilmar Clark of Detroit and sister, Ella Clark, of Northville, spent Christmas with their aunts, the Misses Burton.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peterson and child and Mrs. Ella Calhoun of Detroit spent Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Peterson.

V. L. Cranston of Dearborn, S. E. Cranston of Northville and Mrs. Helen Gray spent Sunday with their mother, Mrs. Orra Cranston.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Gilbert entertained Mrs. Estella Harrington, Wilbur Harrington and Miss Retta VanValkeburg of Northville on Christmas day.

Henry Otis and wife of Detroit, C. Spaller and wife, Herman Schroeder and wife, Mrs. Mary Otis and Miss Alice Otis spent Christmas at Amos Otis.

Mrs. Ann Kennedy and daughter, Mary, Mr. and Mrs. George Hendryx and son, Leo, and Mr. and Mrs. Cloyse Steele and family spent Xmas at M. Kennedy's.

Robt. Graham and daughter, Ruth, Mr. and Mrs. James McCafferty and daughter, Avis, of Redford and Rufus Courter paid Misses Sarah and Pamela Courter a surprise visit on Christmas day.

J. B. Chamberlin, formerly of this place, passed away at his home in Detroit on Tuesday of last week. He was 65 years of age and is survived by a wife and one daughter. The remains were taken to Lansing for burial.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner of Redford, Seymour Lloyd and wife and Miss Letha Lloyd of Monroe, Miss Della Kuhn of New York, Frank and Robert Greshover of Redford and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Woodruff spent Xmas with Mrs. Mary Turner.

Miss Martha Stange and Mrs. Ruppe visited Detroit on Monday.

Mrs. Susan Davis spent Christmas with her daughter, Mrs. F. M. Warner.

Mrs. John Phelps and daughter, Lillian spent Sunday with relatives in Pontiac.

Ben Meyer and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hake in Northville.

Will Randall and wife of Birmingham called on Mrs. John Phelps last Saturday.

S. E. Cranston of Northville spent Xmas with his mother, Mrs. Orra Cranston.

The Grand River Avenue Pedro club met with Mr. and Mrs. T. H. McGee Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Sprague spent Christmas with Lyman Sprague and wife.

Misses Florace Steele and Ceia Hawthorn of Redford spent Monday at C. Steele's.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Hostetter and children spent last week with relatives in Detroit.

John Phelps, wife and daughter, Lillian, spent Xmas with George Hicks and wife in Novi.

E. J. Walton of North Dakota spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mosher in Pontiac.

C. W. Wilber and wife spent Christmas with the latter's brother, E. M. Sprague, in Cleveland.

Mrs. Sarah Fuller of Birmingham is visiting her sister and brother, Mary and Frank Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Steele entertained their children and grandchildren Christmas eve and day.

Grace Conroy of Detroit was the guest of her mother, Mrs. Lucinda Conroy over Christmas.

Mrs. Frank Thompson and daughter, Allene, visited Mrs. Ida Osamus last week Thursday.

A number of Masons attended services last Sunday evening in the Methodist church as it was St. Johns evening.

Mrs. Gust Wagner and daughters, Clara and Alice, spent last week Wednesday with the former's sister, Mrs. Ben Meyers.

Miss Horsfall of Detroit, and Mrs. Nichols, of Nicholsiding, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Smith on Christmas Day.

On account of sickness Mrs. Fred Stoney was absent from her position as organist in the M. E. church last Sunday. Mrs. Henry Lee took her place.

Mrs. Coykendall of Detroit and Mrs. Clyde Douglass of Southfield are here assisting in caring for their mother, who is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Stanley Durham.

The lunch room of the Columbia Hotel is now, since Mr. Streng, of the Interlaken Hotel, has taken it in hand, quite a favorite calling place for shoppers from Farmington and district when in Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buss and son Walter, of Toledo, Mr. Fred and Miss Lydia Stange, of Toledo, Judge and Mrs. L. C. Ruppe, of Elliston, Ohio, were the guests of the Rev. A. G. Stange during the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Goss, formerly of Farmington, now living in Grafton, O., are the proud parents of a 7-pound daughter, born Dec. 28. Mr. Goss is proprietor of the Grafton Journal, and from the looks of his paper, is prospering.

Gardner's Candy Kitchen, Northville, Has only

Home Made Candy

We serve ice cream the year round also hot drinks.

Helen Hostetter is on the sick list.

George Francis is in Ironton, O., this week.

Mr. Kooles of Chicago visited Mrs. Cox, Xmas.

The little daughter of Mr. Paulger is on the sick list.

Mrs. Charles Graham, who has been very sick, is improving.

Mrs. Alice Way and son, Will, spent Christmas at F. W. Parsons'.

Mr. Barney Goers, who had his fingers amputated recently, is doing nicely.

E. H. Roberts and wife of Northville spent Christmas at Jerome Adams'.

Mrs. Larkins, mother of Mrs. Durham, has been very low for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pauline spent last week Thursday with relatives in Detroit.

Henry Pauline, wife and children spent Xmas with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Voight.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vogt, living near Orchard Lake, have just purchased a fine piano.

Mrs. Ed Moore, of Orchard Lake, has a dinner party at which a large number will attend.

Prayer service will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Day Dickerson, January 7.

John Voorhis of California spent Xmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Voorhis.

Mrs. W. J. Warby of South Lyon has been spending a few days with friends in town.

Mrs. R. C. Holcomb of Niagara Falls, New York, is visiting relatives in town for a few days.

R. C. Holcomb and wife and Mrs. E. F. Holcomb attended the theatre in Detroit Wednesday.

Mrs. Jud Webster, daughter, Ola, and son Reed, spent Xmas with Miss Jennie Means in Detroit.

There was quite a large gathering at the Epworth League Sunday evening, when Harley Warner led.

Mrs. Ruth Gamble of Wisconsin was entertained at the home of Mrs. David Ross two days last week.

The little daughters of William Halstead are very ill with pneumonia. Dr. T. Miller is in attendance.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League will be held next Monday evening at the parsonage.

Thomas Larkins of Southfield spent last week Thursday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Stanley Durham.

John Voorhis, wife and daughter, Julia, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. John DeConick of Orchard Lake.

Byron Hudson and wife of Milford, Isaac Bond and wife and Fred Bond and wife spent Christmas with Richard Wolfe and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Slater of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. John Mahaney and baby spent Sunday at E. H. Roberts in Northville.

Mark Wixom, wife and son, Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Delling of Southfield, Mr. and Mrs. Mark Crawford were Xmas guests at John Dellings.

The Ladies Literary club will meet with Mrs. Zaida Wilber on Saturday. Miss Catherine Sprague will give a lecture on English Cathedrals.

Through the kindness of C. W. Chamberlin, who went south with Gov. Warner's party recently, the editor of this paper had the pleasure of getting away with a delicious grape fruit, brought from the sunny south.

Through the kindness of C. W. Chamberlin, who went south with Gov. Warner's party recently, the editor of this paper had the pleasure of getting away with a delicious grape fruit, brought from the sunny south.

Through the kindness of C. W. Chamberlin, who went south with Gov. Warner's party recently, the editor of this paper had the pleasure of getting away with a delicious grape fruit, brought from the sunny south.

Through the kindness of C. W. Chamberlin, who went south with Gov. Warner's party recently, the editor of this paper had the pleasure of getting away with a delicious grape fruit, brought from the sunny south.

Mrs. Seymour Seeley is sick; John Hiles is numbered on the sick list.

Mrs. Albert Flowers, of Southfield, is ill.

Mrs. A. H. Smith gave a dinner for a few friends on Xmas day.

Miss Ella Gove spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. W. Sprague.

N. P. Bachelor and wife entertained 20 guests for Christmas dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley and children spent Sunday at John Thayer's.

Gladys, Roy and William Smith are invited to spend New Years in Northville.

Miss Isabelle Sharp of Detroit visited Mrs. David Ross Sunday and Monday.

Miss Leola Ike spent Christmas with her aunt, Mrs. G. N. Hadden, at Clyde.

Fred M. Follette of Detroit spent part of last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Follette.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank German, of Birmingham, are spending the week with Dr. and Mrs. Miller.

Miss Alice Cole attended the Christmas tree at North Farmington schoolhouse on Saturday night.

Miss Letha Lloyd of Monroe spent part of the Christmas week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Allen.

Miss Jessie Sowle and Leon German spent Xmas at the home of Miss Blanche and Lemuel Power.

W. R. Overholt and wife of Detroit spent Xmas with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Soucie.

Gilford Rohde had the misfortune to catch his fingers in the wringer and one of them was quite badly mangled.

David Ross entertained his nephew, Burt Ross, and Roy Pardo of Buxton, Ont., from Friday until Monday.

Murray Moore accompanied his grandmother to her home in Lansing last Monday, where he will spend the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert of Britton, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Young of Livonia, Roy Cox and wife of Farmington ate Christmas dinner with Mrs. Cox.

There has been a ready response to the appeal by the Rev. John Mealley for subscriptions and help for the erection of new sheds at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Ranous of Walled Lake, Alfred Gray and sister, Mary, of Nebraska, and Arthur Lamb and wife attended the theater in Detroit Monday.

Fred M. Follette and wife, of Detroit, and Eugene Edwards and wife of this place were very pleasantly entertained at the home of L. C. Philbrick and wife Xmas day.

M. J. Spencer of Midland, Geo. Spencer, wife and son of Wixom, Mrs. Cetella Murray and son, Mari, of Lansing, and Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Moore were entertained for Christmas at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore.

Miss Ella Klump and Mr. Albert Slater were united in marriage at their home in Pontiac Thursday evening of last week. They came to the home of her cousin Mrs. Thomas Mahaney on Thursday night and visited here until Sunday.

The Pontiac Business College is now commencing the winter term. A large number of students have enrolled but there is room for still more. The business success of pupils who have graduated at this school is the highest tribute to the teaching efficiency of the staff.

In addition to the list published last week Rev. Mealley has received cash or pledges for the repair of the church shed from the following: Mrs. Beulah M. Osamus, Mrs. Mary Hutton, Mrs. Susan Davis, Miss Mary Lee, E. W. Parker, F. M. Bond, David Houldershaw, Royal Cox, Wm. Sprague, A. E. Stickland.

A three hundred dollar slightly used mahogany piano, now $210. Easy payments.

GRINNELL BROS., Pontiac.

For CHRISTMAS Floral Decorations and all Funeral Work, go to
The LEWIS FLOWER STORE,
81 Saginaw St. PONTIAC, MICH.

Reduction Sale of Millinery

In order to reduce my stock I have decided to mark all trimmed hats 25 per cent discount.

A LARGE STOCK TO SELECT FROM
Leola D. Ike, Milliner,
Farmington, Mich.

Special Holiday Week Sales

Dress Goods
Silks
Hosiery
Ladies Neckwear
Toilet Goods
Art Dept.
Wash Goods
Men's Furnishings
Infants' Goods
Muslin Underwear
D aperties

Crushed and Soiled Handkerchief Sale

In accordance with our usual custom during the last 25 years we will offer for sale all the Handkerchiefs used in the window and interior decoration and all remaining on the counters after the holiday trade.
No Handkerchief, crushed or soiled, ever goes back into our stock; all must be sold. Many broken assortments and odd lots will be added at reduced prices.

The Taylor-Woolfenden Co.

165 to 169 Woodward Avenue, Detroit.

POST CARDS At Enterprise Office

A Happy New Year to All.

Thanking our many friends and customers for their liberal patronage during the past year and soliciting a share of the same for 1909, we are

Yours respectfully,
FRED L. COOK & CO.

Call and get a Calendar for 1909.

Notice.

In looking over our books we find that many of our subscribers are owing for their papers, and it being the first of the year, when everyone likes to start off as nearly even as possible, we ask those parties to favor us with a remittance for the amount.

Cook & Co. are now handling a nice line of rugs.

Buy Groceries at Cook & Co's.