

Kappa Deltas Meet Monday

Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta Sorority will meet Monday, May 15, at the home of Mrs. John Heaphy, 5501 Tequesta Drive, West Bloomfield. Alumnae will spend the evening making favors for patients at Northville State Hospital.

New officers will also be installed at the meeting, which will begin at 8:30 p.m. Mrs. James Dougherty, of Farmington, will serve as co-hostess.

On May 24, the association will invite members of the other three Detroit-area Kappa Delta associations, plus any unaffiliated Kappa Delta alumnae who are interested, to attend a Metropolitan Spring Dinner at Roma Hall in Livonia at 6:30 p.m. Any alumnae wishing to attend the dinner may call Mrs. Thomas Hoffman, 474-6180, for reservations.

Fun in Fashion and Beauty

"The French View for Hair is Slightly Amorous"

If the French have their way the ladies will fall in love with hair fashions for this spring and summer. Away with the straight cut and all its hard, harsh lines, says Rene Bourgeois. Let us return to true femininity with all its grace, its joie de vivre, its light and lovely romanticism.

Carefree and capricious, the hair moves in soft curves. The shape is round and close to the head. Bangs begin all the way back on the crown. Sides echo the forward direction.

The angled cut with a fitted nape is feminized with a cap of curls.

Hair style is held with a soft form selected for your type of hair and style.

This Is Kimberley

By BETTY MAGEAU, 476-3228

BLOSSOM MATLIN, 474-8518

Wedding bells are ringing for the younger element in Kimberley. Mike Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Matthews of Greystone Trail, was married to Sue Ann Scott of Detroit, May 6 at Calvary Evangelical United Brethren Church in a lovely candlelight service. Mike is home on furlough from the Army in Kentucky. He and Sue plan a leisurely trip down to Texas to his next assignment. Best man, Mickey Kowalski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Kowalski of Westmeath Ave.

held a stag party the night before the wedding.

On May 2 the Chuck Evans' home was the scene of joyous entertainment. A baby shower was in progress honoring Vicki, wife of Chuck Evans, Jr. Hostesses were the proud expectant grandmothers, Marie Evans and Martha Pryor.

A delightful luncheon with wine punch was served to 45 guests and the tables were gaily bedecked with bassinet centerpieces. Kimberley was represented at this lovely affair by Mary Lawson, Sandra Baum, Debbie Barsch, Peg Luby, Marlene Angelo, Marion Barringer, Charlene Heur, Judy Burns, Eleanor May, Nancy O'Malley, Jill Emery and Marlan Tournant.

The wind-up of the bowling season brings with it party, banquet time. Mr. and Mrs. Gus Heuer entertained a large group of Sunday night bowling friends at a lovely buffet following the last night of the 1966-67 season of bowling May 7. Approximately 20 couples stipped and munched on sandwiches and discussed why all were not first place champs.

The Wednesday A.M.'ers Ladies Bowling League held its bowling banquet May 6. The affair was a definite success thanks to the efforts of president Emily Borch, and banquet committee women, Mrs. Iva Smith, Mrs. Marlin Butler and Mrs. Pearl Cowar.

RECOGNITION should surely be given to the unsung heroines who recently gave their time to man the canisters for the American Cancer Society fund drive.

The group included Mrs. Pat Wane, Mrs. Dee Horst, Mrs. Diane Sherman, Mrs. Evelyn Fletcher, Mrs. Mary Fezzy, Mrs. Margaret Grabowski, Mrs. Mickey Ruffin, Mrs. Marg Well, Mrs. Pat Hernandez, Mrs. Maria Hawk, Mrs. Claire Such, Mrs. Barbel Chalmers, Mrs. Joan Schuett, Mrs. Alice Hoch, Mrs. Beverly Dudas, Mrs. Betty Hubrecht and Mrs. Pat Colley.

Two of our couples recently took a "get away from it all" weekend and had a most relaxing time at a lodge at Boyne Mountain. The couples were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norton. As the men golfer and girls just plain loved and report the vacation was just what they felt they needed.

About two months ago one of the Keel children found a pair of children's prescription glasses on Pipers Lane, Mrs. Carol Keel has been holding them since and would be happy to have the owner claim them.

IN THAT TRAIN OF thought, during the not too long ago by now, Junior-high-schooler Bill Crompton found the glasses lost by Fred Mageau and reported missing in this column by former correspondent Nancy O'Malley.

Need Workers For MD March

Volunteers are desperately needed to take part locally in the annual drive to raise funds for muscular dystrophy, according to Farmington volunteer co-chairmen Mrs. Tom Nolan, 22180 Ontago, and Mrs. Diana Andrews, 28075 Wildwood Trail.

Needed most, says Mrs. Nolan, are people to make telephone calls to line up women for the march from door to door, which will be held locally Memorial Day Weekend. After days of effort, each chairman has obtained just one volunteer to take part in the drive. Any resident wishing to volunteer her services may call either chairman. Ten or 12 workers are needed for each subdivision.

Town Hall Series Slated

Farmington women will have a chance to support their own Town Hall Series with the announcement by the Soroptimist Club that months of planning and work have resulted in a series to be presented at Northland Theatre, 15600 L.I. Hudson Drive, Northland.

Four outstanding speakers have been lined up, which set the tide back $8,000, according to the president, Mrs. Grace Richardson.

Mrs. Richardson says the Soroptimists have been working since September to obtain speakers, correlate dates and find a place to present the series.

She says Northland Theatre owners have been most cooperative. The location assures those who attend a couple of hours in the most luxurious surroundings in the area. Decision was made to have just four speakers instead of six or seven to be certain they all would be outstanding. Those who will appear include:

Oct. 26—Walter Slezak, star of stage, screen, radio and television, author of "What Time's the Next Swan?" His subject is "Show Business Is No Business."

Nov. 16—Mme. Catherine Antoine Darius, director of Paris' top fashion house, Nina Ricci, author of "Elegance" French fashion magazine. She will speak on "Trends From a Fashion Expert."

March 21—Bess Meyerson, celebrated television star and former Miss America. Her topic is "Woman's Place in a Changing World."

April 18—Alastair Cooke, famed U.S. correspondent, BBC commentator, winner of TV's Emmy and the Peabody, Sylvia and Look awards. He will speak on "What Has the United Nations Done?"

All performances are at 11 a.m. They will be followed by celebrity luncheon at Glen Oaks Golf and Country Club, 30500 13 Mile Rd. Reservations for the luncheon may be made by ticket holder.

Tickets for all four lectures are priced at $10. They may be purchased from any Soroptimist member or by calling GR. 4-6479 or MA 6-3642.
