Society Presents Awards

Four young musicians won scholarship awards at the Livonia Youth Symphony Society's "Recital Night" Tuesday, May 2.

Phil Fouts, French horn soloist from the Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra and Beth Kishigan, cellist from the Junior Orchestra of Livonia, received $100 awards. Beth Shirley, flutist from the Livonia Youth Symphony Orchestra and Bonnie Shirley, violinist from the Junior Orchestra received $50 awards.

Dr. Harry Begian of Wayne State University was the adjudicator. Nicholas Wordell, Scholarship Committee Chairman, commented that he wished there could be 16 scholarships awarded for the 16 finalists who were selected at the preliminary tryouts on April 17.

The scholarship money awarded every year by the Society at Recital Night is to be applied toward tuition at summer music camp or school, private instruction or other musically educational purpose approved by the Society.

Camp Fire Girls Bake Birthday Cake for Council

Camp Fire Girls nationwide are celebrating the 57th birthday of their organization. Traditionally, Camp Fire Girls make cupcakes and present them to prominent citizens of their community.

Three Livonia Camp Fire Girls, representing Mrs. Calvin Arnett's Jr. High Group, attended a study meeting of the Livonia City Council, March 29 and passed out cupcakes to councilmen and other city officials.

The girls were received by Council President Peter Ventura and Councilmen Ed Miligan, Rudolf Kleimert, and Jerry Raymond. A dozen cupcakes, decorated to read: "Camp Fire Girls 57th," were lighted and everyone sang Happy Birthday.

Other officials joining in the festivities were: City Clerk Addison Bacon, Assistant City Attorney Harry Tatigian, Don Hull, Planning Commission Chairman, Mrs. Robert Burger, Secretary, and Mayor Harvey Moelke.

A cupcake had been presented to the Mayor earlier in the day at his office.

Camp Fire Girl cupcake makers were: Claudia Arnett, Pat Collier and Vicki Lomas.

Elect Pat Nowak To State JC Post

Pat Nowak of the Farmington Jaycees, has been elected state vice-president of the Michigan Jaycees. Nowak has been a Jaycee for five years and was president in 1965-66 when the Farmington Jaycees were named the outstanding Jaycee chapter in the state of Michigan.

In his new position, Nowak will have under his direction seven chapters in Southern Oakland County. The chapters are: Birmingham, Farmington, Milford, South Lyon, Southfield, Union Lake, Walled Lake.

The election took place at the Jaycees' regional meeting in Waterford, April 28. At the same meeting, the Farmington Jaycees received the award as the outstanding chapter in their district for 1966-67. Norv Kennedy, president of the Farmington Jaycees, accepted the award.

Name Livonian To Dean's List

ADRIAN — Philip Lloyd Howell, 11970 Newburg, Livonia, has been named to the Dean's List for the first semester at Adrian College, Adrian, Michigan.

To be named to the Dean's List a student must have a 2.25 average on a three-point scale. Generally, this means his grades must include at least one A and no grade lower than a B.

Howell, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Howell, is a sophomore majoring in History and Political Science. He is a member of the History Club at Adrian, a graduate of Franklin High School in the class of '65 and attends the Methodist Church in Livonia.
