School Heads Told Research Programs

School superintendents, board members and other administrators from 10 southeast Michigan counties were encouraged to extend the use of research as part of program planning studies and evaluation at a one-day conference at Schenck's College on Saturday, May 20.

About 70 educators heard Donald J. Pizzimenti discuss the value of research to industry. Pizzimenti, research and development executive with the Detroit Edison Co., drew parallels between industry and education in the use of research for planning and evaluation.

Award Prizes In Westland Motto Contest

"Westland—Pride, Progress, and Promise," selected last week to be Westland's first official city motto, brought a $50 bond as first prize for its author, Mrs. Katherine Langer, of 35008 Nancy.

The contest to pick the motto was held for several months as part of Westland's first annual Birthday Week celebration to mark the community's first year as an incorporated city.

The competition, open to Westland residents, had the motto picked by a committee headed by Councilwoman Justice Barnes.

Second place winner was "Westland—Future Unlimited," submitted by Frank Litz, 1150 Sharon Drive, who won $25.

Mrs. Agnes Stephens, of 34278 Marquette, came in as third place winner and received a $10 check. Her entry was "Progress through Vision, Labor, and Love."

The prizes were awarded Tuesday, May 16, in the Wayne Ford Civic League Hall by Mrs. Barnes on the anniversary date of the city's incorporation.

Committee member David Thomason and Mrs. McKimney showed slides of the new city seal at the dinner.

Completes Course JACKSONVILLE, Fla.—Aviation Electrician's Mate Airman Stuart G. Sivoy of Farmington, has graduated from the Aviation Electrician's School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center.

Airman Sivoy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee W. Sivoy, of 3121 Staman Court, Farmington, studied fundamentals of electricity, electronics, aircraft electrical systems.

After lunch, a trip will be made to the Nature Center. Following that, the students will visit St. Bernadine's Catholic Church, Ann Arbor Trail near Merriman, Westland Shopping Center, and Westland City Hall, where they will be greeted by Mayor Thomas Brown.

The day's event will be a counterpart to the trip made Feb. 22, during Brotherhood Week, when the Perrinville pupils visited the Dewey school, bagel factory, and B'nai David Synagogue.

Perrinville School Principal Richard Burnham said that in case of rain tomorrow, the program will be held on Friday.

64 From Area Receive U-M Degrees

Among more than 4,700 recipients of degrees from the University of Michigan's 17 schools and colleges this spring were 64 from the Wayne County communities of Plymouth, Livonia, Garden City, Westland and Redford Township.

Three areas, plus Farmington and Farmington Township in Oakland County, also are included in the Observer-News-Reporter Group's circulation area.

This year's graduation exercises were marked with special attention because of the 150th anniversary of the founding of the University. Sequential graduates from the five areas listed include:
