

New Way To Use Cake Mix

By JOYCE TOTTEM

Have you ever gone to your pantry and looked at the mixes you have available and not really felt like preparing that plain yellow or chocolate cake? Then giving up and maybe not preparing that cake after all or again preparing it just as directed on the package.

In this season of busy schedules, it's not unusual to find we just don't have time to prepare a specific delight from scratch for family or guests.

I have some recipes called "wife-savers" for you. One for the kiddie set. Then one for the teenagers using cherries since this is one of Michigan's leading products. I couldn't find a special, one for your recipe collection for guests.

PARTY-TIME CAKE CONES

1 package one layer size cake mix, any flavor
15 cup-type ice cream cones
1 package white frosting mix

Prepare cake mix as directed on package. Fill paper baking cups half to two-thirds full. Place cup-type ice cream cones upside down on batter in each cup before baking. Bake 350 for 25 minutes. When completely cool, peel off paper baking cups. Prepare frosting mix as directed on package; frost cones. Decorate with candy, coconut, etc., to resemble animals, clowns or sundae. Makes 15.

CHERRY CRUNCH

1 can cherry pie filling
1 small box white or yellow cake mix
1 lb. butter, melted
12 c. chopped nuts or slivered almonds

Spread cherry pie filling over bottom of 1x11 cake pan, sprinkle dry cake mix over cherries. Drizzle melted butter over all. Sprinkle nuts over top if desired. Bake at 350 for 20-25 minutes or until crispy and brown on top. (May bake 1 hour at 325-350 if preferred.) Makes 8.

FIG MOCHA TORTE

1 package yellow or white cake mix
1 6-oz. package semi-sweet chocolate pieces

3 1/2 c. miniature marshmallows
1/2 c. milk
2 T. instant coffee powder
1/2 c. finely chopped dried figs
1 c. chopped blanched almonds
1 c. whipping cream (1/2 pint)

Prepare cake mix according to package directions. Bake in two 8-9 inch cake pans; cool and split each into thin layers. Combine chocolate pieces, marshmallows, milk and coffee powder in top of double boiler. Heat and stir over hot water until marshmallows melt. Add figs and nuts. Remove from heat, cover and cool. Whip cream; fold into chocolate mixture. Make four layers: spread frosting between each layer; cover top and sides. Chill several hours.
