By BETTY MAGEAU (476-3528) and BLOSSOM MATLEN (474-8518)

Last Tuesday afternoon, Jo Alter was hostess at a farewell coffee for Anita Crompton, who is moving to Colony Park. Knowing of Anita's active interest in the Farmington Garden Club, Jo and her guests presented Anita with a flower arrangement planter in an original John Glick design.

The women attending this coffee were Helen Beaufort, Betty Mageau, Tilly McClure, Joyce Haque, Pat Peterson, Lee Lancer, Jan Mersman, Sue Bowden, Claire Such, Martha Hendricks, Jane Luke and Del Norton.

On June 11, Marion and Wally Barringer had the pleasure of going up to East Lansing and watching their son, Robert, receive his B.S. degree from Michigan State.

JOHN H. BRADLEY, JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Bradley, 23421 Folkstone Dr., has been assigned to the 5th Special Forces Group, First Special Forces, in Vietnam. The 20-year-old "Green Beret" entered the army in February, 1966. He was stationed in Germany.

Festival Queen Contest Opens

Applications are now being taken for the competition for Miss Farmington Founders Festival of 1967.

In order to qualify, the contestants must be between the ages of 17 and 25, single (never married) and reside in Farmington.

All the contestants will be sponsored by local businessmen, but in order to enter a girl need not have a sponsor.

The Farmington Board of Commerce, sponsors of the festival, is contacting the businessmen seeking sponsors. If you wish to sponsor a contestant contact the Board of Commerce or simply send a Beechview School "Moving Up Dinner" on June 14 was attended by the 87 Beechview grads, their parents and teachers. In spite of the torrid weather, all enjoyed the program put on by the students and the dinner served by the fifth grade mothers.

Jean Froelich and Ruth Edmonds were chairmen for the fifth grade mothers, while Mary Foran and Del Norton chairmanned the sixth grade mothers, who catered the dinner and provided the table decorations.

Of particular note was the talk on handicapped children delivered by Miss Marylou Seldon, the special education teacher, who thanked all the students who had participated in the "child to child" teaching done by some of our "graduates." Individual certificates of appreciation, handwritten by Miss Seldon, were presented to these students.

In the recent flag sale by Troop 175 Boy Scouts, some families desirous of purchasing flags were not contacted. Flags can still be ordered by calling Scout Ron Ruffing, 476-3012. The boys hope to have a flag flying on each home in Kimberley on the Fourth of July.

Dick and Doris McChesney, on a three-week motor tour, stopped first in Canton, O., to visit friends, and from there they touched down at Daytona, West Palm Beach, the Bahamas and Sarasota. On the homeward trek, they detoured to Atlanta, Ga., where Dick attended a convention.

Joyce and Gene Bower have four adorable kittens up for immediate free adoption. Any takers?

Attends Seminar

Russell Milligan, New York Life field underwriter in Farmington, attended a business life insurance seminar in Cleveland, Ohio. The two-day seminar covered estate planning.

Baker Graduates

Gary P. Baker, 32718 Grand River, received a BS degree in marketing June 10 at Southern Illinois University's spring commencement exercises.

Herc Assigned

Army Private Ricky E. Herc, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Herc, 30880 Eastfield, has been assigned to Company B, 15th Battalion, 4 Brigade, at the United States Army Training Center, Armor (USATCA) at Fort Knox.

Receives Degree

Ronald J. Clark of 34981 Brittany received a juris doctor degree from Ohio State University June 16 in Columbus. Clark was cited as having high honors upon his graduation from the OSU Law School.

Contest Entry Blank

Girls who wish to compete for the title of Miss Farmington Founders Festival of 1967 should complete this form and mail it with a recent picture to the Farmington Board of Commerce, Box 15, Farmington.

In order to qualify for the contest the girls must be between the ages of 17 and 22, single (never married) and reside in Farmington. The queen will be chosen on the basis of personality, poise and appearance. Deadline for entry into the contest is July 15.
