flipped had been able to see the panorama of white-sheeted craft as they floated around on the Bay. You never before have seen anything like the Muirwoods and you must admit you never have been a nature lover.

The Japanese Gardens, located within the shadow of Kezar Stadium where the Detroit Lions have staged many a stirring struggle over the years, produces more "ohs and ahs."

All of this and more are just part of what one can crowd into a few-day trip, thanks to the modern jet airplanes.

You can look from your plane window and spot the Yellowstone National Park, the Great Salt Lake and the Bonneville salt flats—the latter the area which most of the automobile speed records have been set.

There are the still snow-capped Rocky Mountains, the Grand Canyon, Lake Mead and Boulder Dam.

And then there's the greatest gay white way of all—Las Vegas.

Where else but in Vegas can you be enjoying a cup of coffee and sitting within ten feet are such celebrities as George Burns, Jack E. Leonard and Sheeky Green?

Where else all in a succession of evens can you be entertained by Danny Kaye, Red Skelton, Dinah Shore and Louis Prima?

Where else does money have so little value? Where else do you enter a room confident that you suddenly will strike riches, but within minutes you have taken a beating where it hurts the most—in your pocketbook?

stars, collected two hits in the game, scored one run and stole three bases.

The bats of Dale Bjerke, Ferguson, Fox, Glen Buckingham, and Leland Bjerke rang a merry tune for Morrill in the romp over Garden City East. Dale Bjerke ended his own cause with three hits and two runs. Ferguson slapped out two doubles and scored twice.

Fox, Lee Bjerke and Buckingham each added a pair of safeties.

A single by Larry Draughn in the eighth inning after Mike Lahto had walked netted the Elks the run required to beat the Bentley team, 1-0, as Mack turned in his one-hitter.

Bob Cascadon's single was the lone hit for Bentley. Ken Grates worked three innings and Dave Gorton the rest of the way for the losers.

McFarlane King, comprised of Garden City West high players, jumped off to a fast start by clubbing the Plymouth Elks, 13-1.

Bob Chidester fired a four-hitter for the victors and in addition led the team at bat with two hits in three attempts.

Larry Pierce knocked in three runs and Denny Peters two more for McFarlane King.

South Redford Big Boy bounced off to a good start by shutting out Hawthorne, 4-0. Bob Durand coasted to the verdict and received strong hitting support from Bob Holmes and Reg Barringer.

All three played during the spring at Thurston High.

Wayne Red Sox and a 4-2

decision over the Livonia

Cardinal Decorating to up its record to 4-0.

Deno Syrios went the route against the Red Sox

and was staked to two runs in the fourth when Bill

Holmes singled, Bob Holmes

walked and Ray and Mike

Tyrner singled. Hits by Rod

Ferguson and Bill Holmes

added another run in the fifth.

Chuck Viane, former

North Farmington high

star and a Michigan State

student, out-dueled Bill

McAlpine and Larry Rus-

sas, who shared the pitching for Cardinal Decorating.

Viane and Carl Misch delivered hits to get Dependable an early lead in the second. Then in the sixth, Misch was hit by a pitch. Bill

Fahey singled, Glen Buckingham delivered a perfect

squeeze bunt and Reg Barringer slugged a two-run single.

Gary Birkett's triple

knocked in the first run for

Cardinal while Inland drove over Ed Ryan with the second marker.

Garden City Sporting

Goods also came up with a

twin victory on Sunday, nipping Cardinal, 7-6, and then gaining a 4-3 decision over

Dearborn Heights.

Paul Kighlinger started

for Garden City against

Cardinal, but Carl Stevens

was the winner when Al

Kamienickie drilled over the winning run in the

eightth inning after loser

Chris Wendrick had loaded the bases on walks.

Garden City had rallied to tie the game in the sixth

when Joe Huber drove in two runs with a single.

Mike Donnelly hurled the route against Dearborn

Heights with Garden City

scoring all its runs in the fourth inning.

Bob Gamache singled. So

did Kamienickie and Greg

Pike. Donnelly then unloaded a double. A sacrifice by

Rick Reed and a passed ball finished the scoring.

Dad's Club and the Red

Sox play Friday at Franklin

while Garden City goes

against Dependable at Gar-
