All-Night Peace Vigil Slated at St. John Bosco

An all-night vigil for peace is planned at St. John Bosco Church, on Beech Daly in Redford Township, beginning with an 8 p.m. mass June 30.

The final mass of the vigil will be sung at 8 a.m. the following morning.

A highlight of the night of prayer will be a candlelight procession at midnight to the church's outdoor shrine, and a living rosary will be said there.

Church leaders invited all in the area to participate for part or all of the vigil. It will honor the Blessed Sacrament, to be exposed all night.

A different priest will lead the rosary and give the sermon each hour. Those planning to participate include Father Raymond S. Schlinkert, known in this area for his television appearances; Father Campion, Passionist; Father Christopher Schneider, Franciscan; Father Thomas, LaSallette Fathers and Father Carmel, Capuchin.

The vigil is planned in response to Pope Paul's request for prayers for peace, and the urging of Archbishop John Dearden, Catholics join in a crusade of prayer for peace.

The church is located on Beech-Daly Road, between Plymouth and Schoolcraft. Coffee will be served throughout the night.

ADMIRING THE NEW CORNERSTONE of St. Timothy United Presbyterian Church, Newburgh Road near Six Mile, the Rev. Carl Gunderson, pastor, elders Stanley King and Harry Smit, and the Rev. Richard Bauer, director of national missions for the Synod of Michigan. The cornerstone, containing several documents from St. Timothy's short history, was laid with special ceremonies June 11. The church was organized in 1964 and has been holding Sunday services in the Hoover School. The new building is due for completion late this year.

Bellarmine Scouts Join In Retreat

Boy Scout Troop 499 of St. Robert Bellarmine Church recently attended a Catholic retreat campout at D-Bar-A ranch, Metamora.

The scouts gathered materials and built a rustic shrine. Much of their time was spent at retreat conferences, discussion periods, attending daily Mass, and prayer.

The assistant pastor of Visitation Church, Father Robert Humitz conducted the retreat. The scouts did their own outdoor cooking by patrols.

Leadership was provided by Scoutmaster Jerry Redoutey, and two committeemen.

Capsule Sermon

A Priceless Inheritance

By Mrs. Agnes Stephens

(Mrs. Stephens is a resident of Westland and attends the Church of Christ in Christian Union, located at Marquette and Wayne Road. The Observer will welcome other contributions from ministers and lay leaders for it's "Capsule Sermon" corner.)

I have an inheritance that can far exceed the wealth of the very richest man here on earth. I am an heir to the kingdom of God. The same can be yours. I can prove it. For it is written in God's will and testament, "The Bible," in the Book of First Corinthians, "He that is joined unto the Lord is one Spirit."

Now we become joined unto the Lord by first, repenting of our sin, second, confessing our sin to God, and third and most important of all, turning from our old wicked way, into the way and will of the Lord.

The Book of Romans says, "The Spirit itself beareth witness with our Spirit that we are the children of God," which makes us joint heirs with the son of God Jesus Christ.

Think of the one who is dearest to you. Have you ever been parted for any length of time and had to go to a station to meet each other? At the very sight of her did not your countenance brighten, your heart beat faster, or tears of joy run down your cheeks. You had an emotional and physical reaction.

So also does the child of God when he blesses a service with his presence. The only difference is that the Joy can be multiplied a thousand times and still not express what the presence of the Lord is like. God has promised us all the riches of his kingdom and, more than that, he has promised to send His son Jesus to escort us to the Kingdom. For Jesus said "I go to prepare a place for you.".

REV. ERIC HAMMER

Rev. Hammar At Orchard Methodist

The Rev. Eric S. Hammar, new minister of the Orchard Methodist Church, Farmington, will be in the pulpit for the first time Sunday, June 25.

He comes to Orchard Methodist from the Wesley Methodist Church at Ishpeming, Mich.

The Rev. Frank A. Cozadd, who has been in the Farmington pulpit for nine years that saw great church growth, will transfer to the Clarkston Methodist Church.

Both Eric Hammar and his wife, Florence, are natives of Escanaba. They have four children, Eric Karl, 13; Stephen Wesley, 11; David Blair, nine, and Judith Ann, six. The Rev. Hammar attended Michigan State University; Garrett Theological Seminary in Evanston, Ill.; Rackham School of Graduate Studies; University of Michigan, and Northern Michigan University.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will hold a reception for the new minister and his family immediately following the 9:30 a.m. service Sunday.

Rabbi Wine to Consider 'Can Israel Win Peace?'

Rabbi Sherwin T. Wine, of the Birmingham Temple, will speak on the question "Can Israel Win the Peace?" Friday, June 23, 8:30 p.m. at the Robert Frost Junior High, Oak Park. Following the service, refreshments will be served and there will be open discussion of the subject.

Sigma Alpha Brunch

The Delta Gamma Sigma Chapter of Sigma Alpha Sorority entertained Epsilon Gamma and Alpha Upsilon Chapters at a Spring Brunch Sunday, June 4. Mrs. Thomas Guilfoyle, of Livonia, is corresponding secretary for the Chapter.

Southfield Church Will Hear Missionaries from Spain, China

Missionary speakers will be featured at the Southfield Community Church, 21122 Indian during the absence of Raymond Bayne, pastor.

Harold Kregel, missionary to Spain, was scheduled to speak and show pictures tonight at 7:45. He and his family will be returning to Spain this summer to continue operation of an evangelical book store and preaching throughout the country.

On Sunday, June 25, at 11 a.m., the speaker will be Franklin Lee, a Chinese and former pastor of the Chinese Bible Church of Detroit, who is leaving this summer for Hong Kong to minister to the Chinese there.

George Hunter, from the Christian Servicemen's Center of Vieques, Puerto Rico, will speak at 7 p.m. Sunday.

Beginning July 9, the Rev. Richard Canfield, speaker on "Keys to Better Living" heard on a local radio station, will begin a four-day series of meetings geared to family and home problems. An experienced psychologist and counsellor, he is well qualified to help families find a way to happiness.

Reunion at Roma Hall

Detroit Western High School, January and June 1942 Classes, are holding their 25th Class Reunion Dinner-Dance at Roma Hall, Inkster and Schoolcraft, Livonia, Mich., Saturday, July 8, at 7 p.m.

Members of the 1942 classes who have not yet been contacted by the planning committee are urged to contact Pat Jackson, 274-6113, or Simon Hachigian, Reunion Chairman at 565-4997.

Stamps Needed

A mission in Greenwood, Miss., has issued an appeal for concelled commemorative stamps and loose trading stamps to aid in its work among children.

Stamps are a source of income for the St. Francis Assisi Mission at Greenwood, and may be mailed to the Superior, The Rev. Sister M. Egidia, S.S.J., Route 1, Box 28 A.
