Shirley Ann Pucket, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Pucket of Hagerly Road, Plymouth, became the bride of Thomas J. Wandrey on June 24 in Plymouth Assembly of God Church.

MRS. THOMAS J. WANDREY (Shirley Pucket)

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wandrey of Niles.
The Rev. John Walasky performed the ceremony.
A gown of lace and tulle, with an empire waist, lace sleeves and scalloped neckline was chosen by the bride. Her headpiece was of pearls, crystal and sequins and she carried Amazon lilies with tea roses.
Mrs. Marilyn Ray of Plymouth was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Lura Morin of Livonia and Sharon Sprague of Plymouth.
The matron of honor wore a pink and white crepe gown, with her flowers dyed to match. The other attendants wore white and turquoise crepe gowns.
Pamela Pucket of Pontiac was flower girl.
The wedding party also included Roger Godfrey of Bay City, Norman Delay, John Millard and Phil Wandrey, all of Niles.
The mother of the bride wore a turquoise crepe dress with a lace coat.
After a reception in the church parlor, the couple left for a wedding trip to northern Michigan and Wisconsin.
Both the bride and bridegroom are teachers in the Bentley School System, Flint.

Weekend Gardening

There's still time to plant gladioli, cannas, dahlias and other summer flowering bulbs. . . Prune trees and shrubs that bloomed earlier in the season. Prune to restrict size or improve appearance but do not destroy the natural shape of the plant. . . Feed roses now to encourage another burst of bloom in a few weeks.

This is when your insurance agent's foresight counts

Suppose your child caused this kind of accident—an accident that could cost you thousands of dollars. Could you count on your insurance agent for help? You could if he's an independent insurance agent. If you bought your insurance through an independent agent, you were probably advised to buy liability protection against unexpected accidents. An independent agent is free to make sure your policies fit your needs, because he can pick and choose among several line insurance companies. He owes allegiance to no one company. He displays this seal. Does your insurance man?

We are independent insurance agents, ready to give you the Big Difference in insurance—continuing, personal attention. That includes guidance in choosing the right policy, news about recently issued improved policies, help with claim details, and follow-through for prompt, fair payment. ## Non-Food Purchases Total 23%

In a food store, a shopper finds much more than food—countless other consumer products and "new ideas" items are attractively packaged and displayed. As a result, money spent there is not all spent on food.
Non-food purchases take about one-fourth of the total money, or about 23 cents of each dollar, spent in the food store.
Of total food store spending, the following non-food groups average:
Alcoholic beverages 4.94%
Household supplies 4.78%
Tobacco products 4.30%
Health and beauty aids 2.35%
Soft drinks 1.50%
Pet products 1.12%
Houseware .99%
Clothing articles .53%
Reading materials .48%
Chewing gum .26%
Miscellaneous non-foods 2.07% (toys, etc.)
TOTAL of food store spending 23.00%
